Jared DeMarinis became Maryland's State Administrator of Elections in 2023 after unanimous selection by the bipartisan, five-member State Board of Elections. Previously, he served as Maryland's Director of Candidacy and Campaign Finance. In that position, he took a proactive approach to election administration in campaign finance, making Maryland a model state for the use of new technologies by campaigns, campaign disclosure and enforcement. Jared has served as an election observer in various countries, has been published in The New York Times, written a book on the history of the Electoral College in Maryland, and presented at national conferences. Jared has a law degree from Rutgers School of Law-Newark and a Bachelor's degree from Villanova University.

LWVAAC Monthly Meetings are regularly held on the 2nd Wednesday of the month, 7- 8:30 pm at a public venue in AA County. Events are free and open to the public.

Email program@lwvaacmd.org for more information.

SNOW DATE: LWVAAC follows AACPS closure guidance. If county public schools close for weather on February 11, the meeting will be held February 25 at the same site. Please check the LWVAAC website for an announcement.
