

If you were drafting the Constitution, how much power would you give the federal government over the states?

JOIN IN A LIVELY CLASSROOM DISCUSSION OF

Madison's Federal Negative and the Making of the Constitution

LED BY AACPS HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 2023

6:30 - 8:00 p.m. via Zoom

Demonstrating the Harvard Case Study Method, Anne Arundel County Public School teachers Christina Sipe (Broadneck High School) and Seth Wolak (South River High School) will engage participants in a pivotal debate at the Constitutional Convention of 1787.

The Case Method requires individuals to walk in the shoes of decision-makers by considering all facts within the contexts of time. We invite you to come prepared to discuss the provided case materials, think critically, and learn more about our American Democracy.

RESERVE YOUR SPOT NOW

Click RESERVE or go to lwvaacmd.org/23Case_Madison.

After registering, you will receive a zoom link for the meeting and access to the case study materials. For more information, email secretary@lwvaacmd.org.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, PLEASE SHARE!