About our speaker: Shaneka Henson was born and raised in Annapolis. She earned a B.S. in Criminal Justice from Coppin State University and a J.D. in Law from the University of Baltimore. Shaneka spent almost ten years as a practicing attorney for the Anne Arundel County State's Attorney Office and the Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA). She continues to practice as a partner in her firm, Johnson Legal Group, LLC.

Shaneka was elected in 2017 to represent Ward 6 in the Annapolis City Council and appointed to the Maryland House of Delegates in May 2019, replacing the late Michael E. Busch. Reelected to represent District 30A in 2022, she currently serves on the Ways & Means Committee, Local Revenues Subcommittee and the Early Childhood Subcommittee.

Shaneka will share insights from the 2024 session of the Maryland General Assembly.
