

The Department of Communication and Journalism, Cooperative Extension, and Decolonizing UMaine present:

Truth, Healing, and Change in the Land of the Dawn

Barbara Kates

How do we work toward deep change in the long relationship between the Wabanaki people, the indigenous people of Maine, and those of us who came as immigrants or have immigrant heritage? Come consider our shared history and learn about the groundbreaking Maine-Wabanaki State Child Welfare Truth and Reconciliation Commission as a process of truth, healing and change.

Tuesday, March 27, 2018, 4-6pm
Memorial Union, UMaine
Coe Room, 2nd floor
free admission, refreshments served
