

Assemblyman Joseph V. Egan

On November 6, 2001 Joseph V. Egan was elected to the New Jersey General Assembly to represent the 17th Legislative District. The 17th District includes Milltown, New Brunswick, North Brunswick and Piscataway in Middlesex County and Franklin Township in Somerset County. He currently serves as Chairman of the Assembly Labor Committee and has actively worked to pass legislation to benefit working families.

Assemblyman Joseph V. Egan is a life-long resident of the City of New Brunswick where he was born. He attended St. Peter's Grammar School and graduated from Saint Peter's High School in 1955. In 1957, Mr. Egan started his apprenticeship years with Local Union 456. For over six decades he has served as an officer in Local 456 in various positions. He was elected to the executive board in 1962, elected President in 1974, Co-chaired the Health and Welfare Committee, Pension and Annuity Funds for the local. In 1986, he was elected Business Manager, a position he still holds today.

He serves as Vice President of the New Jersey States Building Trades and President of New Jersey Electrical Workers Association. He is also the Chairman of the New Jersey Electrical Workers Temporary Disability Fund. In addition, he is a former member of the National Electrical Code Committee of the National Fire Protection Association, and a former member of the Council on Industrial Relations for the Electrical Contracting Industry, Washington, D.C.

In 1979, Egan began serving as a member of the New Brunswick Ethics Board. He served 28 years as New Brunswick City Councilman and served nine years as City Council President.

He is a charter member of Keep Middlesex County Moving, (KMM), and the transportation management association of Middlesex County. KMM aims to improve mobility for county, to reduce traffic congestion, and to foster better air quality.

Mr. Egan is an active member of his church and community. As a member of St. Peter's Parish in New Brunswick, he served as vice-president of the parish council. His dedication to the church earned him the Monsignor James Harding Medal, an award honoring community service. During the 1989 renovation of Sacred Heart Church and the building of Elijah's Promise Soup Kitchen in New Brunswick, Egan organized volunteer labor from Local 456 to perform the electrical work for both projects.

In December 2018 Assemblyman Egan lost his beloved wife, Yolanda, of 60 years. Together he and Yolanda raised four children: daughter Patricia and sons Joseph Jr., Timothy, and Kevin. He has seven grandchildren.

Chairman Kevin McCabe
Middlesex County Democratic Organization
266 Fernwood Avenue
Edison, NJ 08837

Dear Chairman McCabe,

This will serve to confirm my intention to seek reelection to the New Jersey General Assembly. It has been an honor to represent the 17th legislative district. I look forward to continuing my work for the residents of Milltown, New Brunswick, North Brunswick and Piscataway.

I respectfully request the endorsement of the Middlesex County Democratic Organization for the 2019 Primary election. Thank you all the members of the Middlesex County Democratic Organization for your past support.

Sincerely,

Joseph V. Egan
