

Assemblyman James J. Kennedy

Occupation: Principal at Skye Consulting

Home & Business Address: 442 Elm Ave, Rahway, NJ 07065

Home & Business Phone: 908-902-4776

Democrat James Kennedy, of Rahway, was elected to the New Jersey General Assembly on November 3rd, 2015.

Born on February 9th, 1953, Assemblyman Kennedy has been a business owner and an economic development advisor throughout the State of New Jersey. He is the Principal of Skye Consulting, which focuses its efforts on community development, world water issues and cultural arts. He is also the former owner of Kennedy Jewelers in Rahway.

Prior to serving in the Assembly, Mr. Kennedy served as mayor of Rahway from 1991 to 2011. He also served as Commissioner on the Rahway Senior Housing Corporation, on the Board of Directors at RWJ University Hospital Rahway, as well as a panelist/delegate to Istanbul, Marseille, and Mexico City for the World Water Forum.

As an Assemblyman he serves as Vice-Chair of the Science, Innovation and Technology Committee, as well as a member of the Transportation & Independent Authorities Committee and the Commerce and Economic Development Committee.

He and his wife, Lori reside in Rahway.

Mr. Kennedy represents the 22nd Legislative District, which includes the Union County municipalities of Clark, Fanwood, Linden, Plainfield, Rahway, Scotch Plains and Winfield; the Middlesex County municipalities of Dunellen and Middlesex; and the Somerset County municipalities of Green Brook and North Plainfield.

February 26, 2019

Chairman Kevin McCabe
Middlesex County Democratic Committee
266 Fernwood Rd.
Edison, NJ 08837

Dear Chairman McCabe,

We are running for re-election to the New Jersey General Assembly in the 22nd Legislative District, and request the support of the Middlesex County Democratic Committee.

As longtime members of the Democratic Party, we are excited at the recent gains made in Middlesex County under your leadership. As incumbent members of the General Assembly, we have been fighting hard to build a fairer New Jersey for working families in the state, and plan on campaigning on behalf of ourselves as well as Democratic candidates across the ballot.

We will be attending your convention and look forward to coordinating our appearances with your staff. As requested, enclosed please find copies of our biographies. Obviously, please feel free to reach out for any further information you may need.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "James Kennedy".

---

James J. Kennedy

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Linda Carter".

---

Linda S. Carter