MIAMI REFERENDUM 1

Charter Amendment to Move the City Elections from Odd-Numbered to Even-Numbered Years

Shall the City Charter be amended to change the General and Runoff Elections from odd-numbered years to even-numbered years commencing in the years 2034 and 2036, and every four years thereafter, so the General Election is concurrent with any statewide or countywide election; modify the qualification period and clarify that the terms of office of those elected in the years 2031 and 2033 shall be reduced to 3 years due to said change?

MIAMI REFERENDUM 2

Approve Management Agreement with Global Spectrum for Historic Miami Marine Stadium and Flex Park

Shall the City enter into a management agreement with Global Spectrum L.P. to activate and manage events at the Historic Miami Marine Stadium and Flex Park.

- City receives 93% of gross sales of all events after deducting a $33,333 monthly management fee
- City receives 85% of sponsorship revenues
- 40 year term
- Global Spectrum to pay the City up to $10,000,000 towards the restoration of Historic Marine Stadium?

SWEETWATER REFERENDUM 1

Procedures for Interim Mayor and Special Election upon Vacancy in the Office of Mayor

Shall the charter be amended to provide for: appointment and compensation of an interim mayor within 10 days of a vacancy in the office of mayor; a special election for mayor within 120 days of vacancy, unless fewer than 180 days remain in the unexpired term; and return of the interim mayor to the commission if he has not previously resigned to run?

Requiring Supermajority Vote for Disposition of any City Realty and Referendum for Disposition Recreational Realty

Shall section 2.02(d) of the charter be created and section 4.01(d)(12) of the charter be deleted in order to prohibit the city from entering into contracts
to deploy traffic control cameras except in designated school speed zones as provided in state law?

Amendment Prohibiting Traffic Control Cameras
Except in School Speed Zones as per State Law

Shall section 2.02(d) of the charter be created and section 4.01(d)(12) of the charter be deleted in order to prohibit the city from entering into contracts
to deploy traffic control cameras except in designated school speed zones
as provided in state law?

Canvassing Board to be Constituted of City Clerk and Two Deputy or Assistant City Clerks

Shall section 6.07 of the Charter be amended to designate the canvassing board as being constituted by the city clerk and two deputy or assistant clerks?
