

THE HUMAN IMPACT OF ANTIPERSONNEL MINES IN IRAN

648 recorded casualties in affected provinces (2013–2025)

DATA PERIOD
2013 – 2025

AFFECTED PROVINCES
13

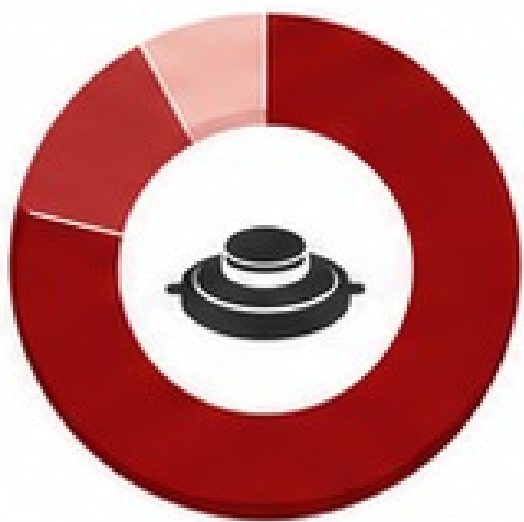

TOTAL RECORDED CASUALTIES
648

KNOWN CASUALTIES BY PROVINCE

|                    |     |
|--------------------|-----|
| Ilam               | 149 |
| Kurdistan          | 127 |
| Kermanshah         | 123 |
| Khuzestan          | 93  |
| West Azerbaijan    | 90  |
| Sistan-Baluchestan | 44  |
| Razavi Khorasan    | 5   |
| Kerman             | 5   |
| Golestan           | 3   |
| Lorestan           | 2   |
| Mazandaran         | 2   |
| Tehran             | 2   |
| East Azerbaijan    | 1   |

DEVICE TYPE

AP Mine
528 (81%)

ERW
74 (11%)

AV Mine
42 (6%)

Total 648

GENDER & AGE OF CASUALTIES

70%

Adult Male

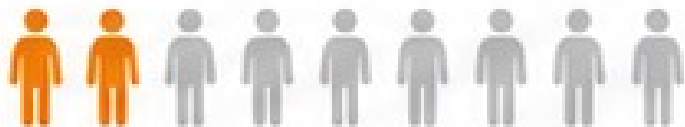

14%

Adult Female

16%

Children

ACTIVITY AT TIME OF INCIDENT

|                                  |     |
|----------------------------------|-----|
| Daily work                       | 162 |
| Mine clearance                   | 111 |
| Tending livestock                | 70  |
| Porter (Sukbar / Kolbar)         | 68  |
| Military                         | 53  |
| Tampering                        | 38  |
| Scrap metal and waste collecting | 36  |
| Travel                           | 25  |
| Agriculture                      | 23  |
| Playing                          | 19  |
| Other causes or unknown          | 45  |

Total

648

Antipersonnel mines continue to take lives and cause life-changing injuries. They limit access to land, threaten livelihoods and undermine the future of communities across Iran.

Source: Mines Action Canada
Data compiled from publicly available victim casualty records and incident reports. As such this number is not comprehensive and the actual number of casualties is believed to be far higher.