

19|47 ARCHIVE

---

THE 1947 PARTITION ARCHIVE IS A GRASSROOTS NON-POLITICAL EFFORT TO DOCUMENT AND PRESERVE EYE-WITNESS ACCOUNTS FROM ALL COMMUNITIES AFFECTED BY THE PARTITION OF BRITISH INDIA, FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.

---

Crowdsourcing oral histories of the 1947 India - Pakistan Partition since 2010. Archives 1947 are global citizens coming together to document the world's largest human displacement.

---

1947 Archives documents the events and life stories of people who experienced the Pakistan- India Partition occurred 68+ years ago. There are still those who hold vivid and important memories of the chaos that unfolded during Partition, the pre-Partition life and culture and the post-Partition changes/loss of a way of life.

1947 archives are people powered project that collects, archives and immortalizes these stories. Contact them to share your stories or to join hands with them in preserving memories before they are forever lost.

To donate: <http://www.1947partitionarchive.org/donate>

Mailing Address:

Bangladesh: TBA

India: TBA

Pakistan: TBA

UK: TBA

USA: PO Box 9505 Berkeley, CA 94709

Email ID: ask@1947partitionarchive.org

Web Address: <http://www.1947partitionarchive.org/>

Surender Kumar Marwaha, pictured with his wife Veena Malhotra, was born in Raiwind, Punjab in 1940. After his birth his family moved to Quetta in Balochistan. His father who worked in the railways got transferred to Delhi four months before Partition.

“Somebody shot Liaquat Uncle” were the words that Masuda Dogar remembers uttering as a 12-year-old to her father when he came home on October 16, 1951, in disbelief after hearing the shocking news on the radio that Liaquat Ali Khan, the Prime Minister of Pakistan, had been