

Bivium Capital Partners, LLC

Investment Research Professional

Bivium Capital Partners is a San Francisco-based boutique investment firm that builds customized portfolios for institutional investors. We focus on identifying and investing with talented money managers, with a focus on emerging and sustainable managers, in select asset classes where we believe skill and motivation can deliver exceptional results. Our clients are many of the largest, most sophisticated institutional investors in the world, including foundations, endowments, and pensions; we offer them innovative investment products, including sustainable and mission-aligned investments, created on our proprietary investment research platform.

At Bivium, innovative thinking, collaboration, and a strong work ethic serves as the base of our culture. New employees will be a valuable contribution to the platform that Bivium has established, and will have hands-on opportunities to build their knowledge, talents and skills by working and learning together through teamwork settings. We have a flat organizational management approach where all employees are aware of and involved in the direction of our company. We value all of our team members, understand the importance of maintaining a healthy work/life balance, as well as the importance of us maintaining a healthy relationship to our community. Our employees volunteer in a number of community projects and charities.

We are looking for a full-time Investment Research Professional to work with our team. While investment professionals at Bivium are generalists focused on all asset classes, this role will have a specific focus on alternative investments manager due diligence and research (private equity, venture capital, infrastructure, real estate).

Your responsibilities will include but are not limited to the following:

- Assessment of and familiarity with the investable universe;
- Conducting investment analysis and research;
- Performing manager due diligence and making recommendations to the Investment Committee;
- Monitoring and analyzing quarterly and annual performance results;
- Assist in overall client engagement and capital market research.

Bivium welcomes the interest of candidates from all backgrounds. A successful candidate for the role should have:

- At least years of industry experience;
- Graduate degree preferred;
- CFA/CAIA designation preferred;
- Experience with Evestment, Bloomberg, Factset, Burgis, and other technical tools
- Demonstrate a strong work ethic;
- Abundant intellectual curiosity and honesty; and
- A great deal of self-awareness and motivation.

Bivium Capital Partners employees enjoy a hybrid work environment with offices in San Francisco and New York.
