

The 28th Annual NACOLE Conference

Co-Creating Public Safety Through Civilian Oversight, Law Enforcement, and Community Partnerships

2022 Virtual Annual Conference – Session Schedule

The 28th Annual NACOLE Conference will contain both in-person and virtual components. The virtual component will consist of 12 sessions that will be presented over the course of 3 days on October 26, November 2, and November 9, 2022. Additional information on each of the days and the content included is contained below.

Day 1 – October 26, 2022: Co-Creating Civilian Oversight

On Day One of the virtual component of the 2022 Annual NACOLE Conference, we will look at cities who are in various stages of implementing or enhancing civilian oversight of law enforcement. Join us as we welcome members of the Des Moines, IA community, Philadelphia's Citizens Police Oversight Commission, and oversight practitioners from throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia to discuss their efforts, their success, and their lessons learned. We will conclude the day by looking at how activism has advanced civilian oversight in cities throughout the United States.

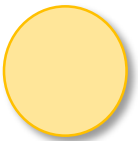

Session	Date	Title
1	10/26/22	A Grassroots Approach to Civilian Oversight: A Case Study in Collaboration and Resiliency
2	10/26/22	The Philadelphia Story: Lessons from Re-Envisioning Oversight
3	10/26/22	Oversight in the Old Dominion: The Past, Present, & Path Forward for Civilian Oversight in Virginia
4	10/26/22	Translating Activism into Action in the Creation and Advancement of Civilian Oversight

Day 2 – November 2, 2022: Establishing and Supporting Effective Reform Efforts

Day Two of this year's virtual component will gather experts from around the country to discuss implementation and enhancement of civilian oversight, how state legislation is affecting oversight at the local level, and how established oversight mechanisms are adapting to better serve their communities.
