NALEO Educational Fund Announces Election of Three New Board Members

Arizona State Representative Diego Espinoza, Rhode Island State Representative Carlos Tobon, and Texas State Representative Mary González elected to serve on the board of directors

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) Educational Fund today announced the election of three new board members and the reelection of three current board members to serve on the organization’s 15-member board.

Incoming board members Arizona State Representative Diego Espinoza, Rhode Island State Representative Carlos Tobon, and Texas State Representative Mary González were elected during a meeting held in Los Angeles, California on December 17, 2018.

“The next two years offer our organization an extraordinary opportunity to ensure that Latinos make their voices heard in Census 2020 and the upcoming presidential election,” stated NALEO Educational chair and City of West Hollywood mayor John Duran. “We look forward to working with Representatives Espinoza, Tobon and González and the rest of the members of the NALEO Educational Fund board to ensure that the policy priorities of Latinos are front and center.”

City of West Hollywood Mayor and NALEO Educational Fund Board Chair John Duran, Indiana State Representative Mara Candelaria Reardon, and National City Mayor Alejandra Sotelo-Solis were also elected to serve additional terms on the board of directors during last month’s meeting.
