

PROTECT THE RICHMOND RIVER KOALA PARKS

Restore the River

We need to restore wide buffers around streams to filter waters and improve stream health.

Regrowth uses twice as much water as old growth, allowing forests to recover will increase dry season stream flows. We need forests to reduce flood effects, by slowing runoff and trapping sediments.

NO MORE OF THIS (Gibberagee State Forest, 2017, habitat of Endangered Purple Spotted Gudgeon)

