

SUPPORT THE NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES (NEH)

ACTION NEEDED

We urge Congress to provide no less than $167.5 million in FY 2020 funding for the National Endowment for the Humanities and to forcefully reject any efforts to eliminate the agency. The NEH is funded under the Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies Appropriations bill.

FUNDING OVERVIEW

For the past four years, the NEH has received small increases in funding. Even still, when adjusted for inflation, the NEH's funding has decreased by more than 15 percent since 2010.

ABOUT THE NEH

The NEH's mission is to strengthen our nation by supporting high-quality projects and programs in the humanities and by making the humanities available to all Americans. The NEH fulfills its mandate by:

- Providing training for thousands of school, college, and university teachers;
- Reaching tens of millions of Americans with high-quality television and radio documentaries, museum exhibitions, and reading and discussion programs in museums and libraries across the nation;
- Supporting, in partnership with the Library of Congress, efforts in every state to digitize and make accessible hundreds of thousands of pages of historic U.S. newspapers. Over 11 million pages of historic American newspapers have been digitized through the National Digital Newspaper Project, with many millions more to follow;
- Supporting scholarly research that has resulted in significant archaeological discoveries, the publication of thousands of books, and innovative digital methods. Grants for research have resulted in the publication of nearly 8,400 books, including 18 Pulitzer Prize winners and 20 Bancroft Prize winners.

THE FEDERAL INTEREST IN THE HUMANITIES

With a modest federal investment, the NEH plays an outsized role in:

Cultivating an informed citizenry

The NEH was established in 1965 in recognition of the unique role the humanities play in helping U.S. citizens develop the wisdom, vision, and knowledge required to participate in a thriving democracy. To this day, the NEH supports excellence in humanities research, teaching, and lifelong learning opportunities that provide millions of Americans the knowledge of our history and culture essential for engaged citizenship;

Bridging divides

NEH programs encourage communities across the nation to engage in civic dialogue. From Alaska to Maine, conversation programs help citizens confront difficult issues, voice their perspectives, and learn from others;

Ensuring that all Americans benefit from the humanities

NEH funding, with the support of the state humanities councils, reaches every state and congressional district;

Preserving cultural heritage

Without investments to preserve and make accessible artifacts and documents from our past, key components of our cultural heritage would be lost. And in response to ever-increasing natural disasters, NEH funding helps communities protect their cultural heritage in times of crisis;

Supporting programs of national importance

NEH funding supported the archaeological rediscovery of Jamestown and Plymouth. Funding for scholarly editions and translations ensures that the writings of notable Americans, from the Founding Fathers to Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony, are accessible either digitally or in print.

THE NEH CATALYZES PRIVATE INVESTMENT IN LOCAL ECONOMIES

A modest amount of federal investment catalyzes private, local support for the humanities. NEH grantees are often able to leverage their award for greater, local investment. In addition, NEH's investments in museums and historic sites around the country have played a key role in developing local tourist economies:

- Since its inception in 1977, grants made through the NEH Challenge Grants program have leveraged federal funds at a ratio of 3:1, raising $3,152,110,194 in private support for humanities projects;
- State councils leverage $5 for every dollar of federal investment. In 2016, 55 state councils supported 2,419 exhibitions, 280 preservation projects, and 1,612 local history programs, attracting a total audience of 5.5 million people;
- Grantees in the Media Projects program in the Division of Public Programs leveraged NEH awards to raise an estimated $16,221,684 in funds or donations between 2008 and 2014. This is eight times the amount of the NEH awards, or an 8:1 ratio for NEH funds.
