

Field Organizer Position

Friends of Leesa Manion is looking for qualified candidates interested in serving as Field Organizer on a countywide campaign. The full-time position begins immediately and runs through Election Day, Nov 8th 2022.

Leesa Manion is a first time candidate running for King County Prosecuting Attorney to build a fair and transparent justice system, craft innovative solutions through broad coalitions, and create positive change to keep every community across King County safe. We need help building our volunteer base and need someone who can help implement a countywide field plan for the campaign.

Responsibilities

- Implementing all aspects of field program;
- Maintaining relationships with all partner organizations on the ground;
- Performing direct voter contact;
- Event coordination and recruitment
- Recruiting, training and retaining volunteers;
- Working with candidate to meet deadlines and achieve field goals;
- Any other campaign related tasks, as needed.

Joining a top priority campaign, the Field Organizer should expect non-traditional work hours including weekends and evenings through Election Day.

The Field Organizer will work closely with the Campaign Manager to strategize and execute the field plan.

Requirements

Qualified candidates must be detail oriented, communicative, highly organized, highly motivated and capable of working through a demanding work environment.

Additionally, candidates must have:

- Preferably (but not required) one campaign cycle of field experience;
- Experience working or volunteering on a GOTV operation;
- Experience with VAN/VoteBuilder;
- Experience with Excel;

Salary and Hours

This is a full-time position. $3500-4000/month DOE. Health care stipend provided as needed.

Leesa Manion will be the first woman and first person of color to serve as Prosecutor in King County. We believe in representation and seek to center community in our campaign. People of color, women, LGBTQIA people, veterans and people from working class backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

To apply please submit resume, references and salary requirements to CS Wright: chelsey@leesamanion.com