

5 STAR HOTELS FOR MIGRANTS

WHILST BRITS FREEZE

Record numbers of illegal migrants have arrived in Britain this year - with more than 1000 migrants crossing the English channel in a single day alone! But to add insult to injury, these migrants are then being housed in three, four even five star hotels all over the country.

Whilst British people are increasingly feeling the cost of the Government's economic mismanagement which has caused both gas and electric prices to rise rapidly - with many facing the choice of whether to eat properly or heat their home over winter - migrants are being given the red carpet treatment with no expense spared!

How many homeless ex-servicemen are sleeping rough on the streets of our big cities? Yet despite their service to the nation, has the Government ever offered to house them in hotels?

It seems clear that the Government sees our own people as second class citizens, choosing to prioritise the needs of migrants over the needs of the indigenous people. But the media tell us that the migrants are 'seeking asylum' - yet just one look at the boatloads arriving on our shores and you see that the overwhelming majority of the new arrivals are healthy young men of fighting age.

Make no mistake - these are economic migrants who are coming to this country because they know that our Government will hand everything to them on a plate - whilst ignoring the suffering of British people.

If you are sick of this incredible injustice you can write to your local MP and politely inform them of your feelings. If you want to help the campaign against mass immigration then you can join like minded people in Patriotic Alternative who are campaigning to close our borders and call for OUR people's needs to be prioritised in these difficult times.
