White British people could be a minority in the UK within three decades, ministers warned

The Telegraph

White British children are now a minority in one in four schools

White Britons are already a minority in London, Birmingham & Manchester

White British births make up just 52% of all live births in England & Wales

NET migration increased to a high of over 900,000 in recent years

In the year 1999/2000 White Britons made up approximately 90% of the population. By the year 2024/2025 White Britons made up just 70% of the population - that represents a 20% shift in just 25 years. If this continues, White Britons will be a MINORITY by the end of the 2050s.

White Britons are already a minority in Britain's largest cities - London, Birmingham and Manchester. What's worse, is that this demographic shift is most pronounced amongst the youngest age brackets - with White British children making up just 60% of the school population. This has led to 72 British schools not having a single White British pupil, and a further 454 schools having a population where fewer than 2% are classed as White British.

This is not just an issue of 'illegal migration'. Whilst small boat crossings are a problem, they are easily eclipsed by legal immigration. In 2023 alone over 1.4 million migrants entered Britain legally, compared to around 50,000 coming here via illegal routes. Most of the migration into Britain is rubber stamped and facilitated by the government by means of work and student visas.

We are being replaced at such a rate that we will need to build the equivalent of one large city per year to house the growing migrant population. This must end now. White Britons must NOT become a minority, we are the indigenous people of these islands and we have a right to retain majority status and hold on to our culture, traditions and ways of life which are all being erased due to migration.

The only solution to this problem is to stop immigration into Britain and begin a policy of remigration to ensure a future for our people in our homeland.
