Erik Sperling, originally from Mequon, worked closely with Peace Action of Wisconsin during high school and college. After law school, he worked as Senior Adviser and Counsel in the offices of Congressman John Conyers and Congressman Ro Khanna.

Currently, Erik is the Executive Director of Just Foreign Policy in Washington D.C. and is extremely knowledgeable on world issues and what is happening in Congress.

Just Foreign Policy is a nonpartisan nonprofit organization believing that uniting people across the political spectrum is critical to building the momentum needed for meaningful and lasting change.

This free and informative event is presented by Peace Action of Wisconsin, a peace and justice organization founded in 1977.
