

What is Restore Britain?

Restore Britain is a non-party issue-based membership organisation, for those who want to fundamentally change the way Britain is governed. Our aim is to shape the national debate and to come together to generate a policy platform to restore Britain.

Is Restore Britain affiliated with any political party?

Restore Britain is a movement, not affiliated to any political party. We will not stand or endorse candidates in elections. Membership is open to members of all political parties.

How will direct democracy work within the movement?

The policy platform for Restore Britain will be ratified by the membership. More details will be announced in due course, but every policy will be put to a vote by our members. Successful votes will be actioned with press statements, parliamentary questions and petitions and will be developed into a comprehensive policy document.

Who leads Restore Britain?

Restore Britain is led by Rupert Lowe MP, with an advisory board. The leadership will put policies forward for ratification by the membership.

How is Restore Britain funded?

Restore Britain is a grassroots movement, funded by our membership and other donations.

Joining Restore Britain

Membership is open to anybody, regardless of party membership. An annual membership costs £20. Members will receive regular communications, invitations to regional and national forums and will have the opportunity to ratify the policy platform of Restore Britain.

What is the Cromwell Club?

The Cromwell club is for high level donors. Members receive a tie, lapel badge, an invitation to an annual dinner as well as access to exclusive events

Do you accept donations?

Yes – we welcome donations of any amount, from anyone who supports the principles of the movement If you would like to donate: <https://www.restorebritain.org.uk/donate>

How do you decide what issues to campaign on?

The leadership and advisory board will propose key campaign issues for the movement, to be ratified by the membership.

Will my membership Auto-renew?

Yes, your membership will auto-renew annually. You will be notified by email before we are due to take your payment.