

Organizer in Training Intern

SAVE (Safeguarding American Values for Everyone) is an umbrella organization consisting of SAVE Foundation (C3), SAVE Inc (C4), and SAVE Action PAC. SAVE is South Florida's leading organization dedicated to protecting people who are LGBTQ against discrimination. Since 1993, SAVE has advocated for equal rights for persons of all sexual orientations and gender identities. We accomplish this through grassroots action. SAVE's field efforts ensure equality is won by doing public education and get out the vote work to elect pro-equality candidates at the local, state, and federal level that will be critical in advancing equality for LGBTQ+ people.

SAVE hires Organizer in Training Interns for Miami-Dade and Broward counties each semester for three to four months. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis with internships beginning in September, January, and June.

Organizer in Training Intern Job Description:

The Organizer in Training will work closely with the Community & Field Organizer. Field Interns will help build LGBTQ+ leadership and visibility in the movement through grassroots action such as canvassing, phone banking and trainings to further SAVE's mission and support pro-LBGTQ+ candidates and policy in South Florida. This is an ideal position for someone with a passion for social justice, who is comfortable training others, and interacting with diverse populations.

Responsibilities:

- Help implement grassroots action plan
- Help expand the number of LGBTQ+ people and allies engaged with SAVE
- Identify progressive/LGBTQ+ events in the area to increase visibility
- Train and recruit volunteers
- Mobilize SAVE volunteers and members to attend actions
- Participate in and manage actions with the Field Organizer
- Assist in the passage of pro-equality policies
- Maintain constituent database of volunteers and voters

Successful interns should:

- Be a team player willing to work across teams and pitch in to ensure all colleagues succeed
- Be organized and detail oriented
- Have a reliable smartphone and laptop for use
- Have occasional weekend and weeknight availability
