It is understood that such resolutions are agreed to on a without prejudice basis. The employee may request a Shop Steward to be present for this discussion.

21.04 Handling Grievances during Working Hours

A Bargaining Unit Representative has the right to secure permission from the immediate Supervisor to leave assigned duties for a reasonable period in order to discuss any grievance with the appropriate representatives of the Employer. Such Bargaining Unit Representative shall not suffer any loss of pay or other benefit for the time absent from assigned duties.

21.05 First Step – Executive Director

Grievances should proceed as quickly as possible. Accordingly, employees, through the Union, or the Union itself, may refer any such grievance, in writing, to the Executive Director within twenty-one (21) calendar days of occurrence of the cause for complaint. The Executive Director or designate shall within a reasonable time discuss the grievance

The meeting will take place no more than seven (7) days after receipt of such application from the Union. There will be an equal number of Union and Management representatives in attendance, unless otherwise agreed between the Union and the Employer. This meeting is intended to settle the Grievance without the help of a mediator or arbitrator. The Management supervisor and the Griever referred to in Step 2 shall not be present at this meeting. Instead this meeting will be with the Director of Operations or designate and the Human Resources Business Partner or designate. If the Grievance is not settled to the satisfaction of the Griever, the Union may within seven (7) days of the meeting proceed to arbitration.

SEIU-West represents working people across Saskatchewan who work in Health Care, Education, Municipalities, Community Based-Organizations and Private Sector industries. We work to improve the lives of working people and their families and lead the way to a more just and humane society.

The gains and protections contained in this document are the result of you and your co-workers coming together to negotiate a Collective Agreement with your Employer. If you know of someone who needs this kind of agreement and Union protections in their workplace, please contact the SEIU-West Organizing Department today at 1-888-999-SEIU (7348).
