

HAVE YOU EXPERIENCED HOMELESSNESS? WE'D LIKE YOUR INPUT

WE ARE LOOKING FOR UP TO EIGHT PASSIONATE PEOPLE WITH LIVED EXPERIENCE OF HOMELESSNESS FOR INPUT INTO HOMELESSNESS WEEK 2019.

Homelessness Week runs from 4th – 10th August 2019 and aims to raise awareness about homelessness in our community.

YOUR ROLE

Contribute to working group meetings, by providing expertise & ideas on how best to ensure the voice of lived experience of homelessness informs the program

Provide feedback on this year's program as it develops. Your advice will go to the Homelessness Week Reference Group, via the two lived experience advisors who are members of this Group

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Have had lived experience of homelessness

Want to share ideas on how to inform the events program during Homelessness Week

Be available to attend meetings for about 15 hours between late March & early August

PAYMENT

Members of this reference group will be paid for their expertise as per the Shelter WA Lived Experience Payment Policy

MEETINGS

Meeting times will be agreed by the team and held at Shelter WA in Moore Street East Perth. Meetings can be attended remotely via teleconference

ALL VOICES

We're keen to hear the views of a wide range of people with lived experience of homelessness

If you're Indigenous, a young person, an older person, identify as LGBTIQ+, are culturally or linguistically diverse, or live with a disability, we encourage you to take part in this reference group

INTERESTED?

Email Kit Scott by Thurs 21st March at shelterwa@shelterwa.org.au outlining:

- Why you're interested in the role
- What skills you can offer to the team
- What you hope to achieve by being involved
- How you meet the eligibility criteria

If you'd prefer to chat call 9325 6660 & we'll arrange a time for you to speak with Kit

For more information, please call Kit Scott via Shelter WA, on 9325 6660 or visit shelterwa.org.au/homelessness_week