

THE SHOPKEEPER

SYNOPSIS

From indie musicians fighting to earn a living to music lovers sorting through a dozen streaming services, the acts of creating and listening to music have undergone a fundamental change. A new documentary film, The Shopkeeper, tells the inspiring and entertaining story of music producer Mark Hallman, owner of the oldest continuously operating recording studio in Austin, TX, who is still making great music in the face of a changing industry. With humor, heart and a killer soundtrack, and featuring Ani DiFranco, Iain Matthews, Tom Russell, Eliza Gilkyson and many more, The Shopkeeper determines to find solutions that will actually work for artists and fans.

MPAA RATING

The Shopkeeper is unrated, but would likely receive a PG-13 rating for language.
