

Iain Brodie Browne

- Retiring Chair of Social Liberal Forum
- Elected Councillor since 1984
- Former Council Group Leader, Cabinet Member and PPC
- Author and editorial team for various publications including SLF's Four Go In Search and the Wolves in the Forest
- Retired, founder and CEO of a large Mental Health Charity (1980-2020)

There is a need to promote fresh radical ideas to fill the vacuum that now exists in our politics. As Keynes asserted: "We have to invent new wisdom for a new age. And in the meantime we must, if we are to do any good, appear unorthodox, troublesome, dangerous, disobedient to them that begat us."