

Janice Turner for SLF Council

Janice Turner is a lifelong member of the party and a national trade union official. She has been chair of the Young Liberals, chair of the Association of Liberal Democrat Trades Unionists and previously on SLF council. She is currently vice-chair of the Lib Dem Campaign for Race Equality and is also founding co-chair of the Association of Member Nominated Trustees whose members' pension schemes have collective assets of about £1-trillion. Janice has created party policy on race equality, pensions and trades unions.

She believes that the best outcome we can hope for at the next election is a Labour-Liberal Democrat coalition and that SLF's role between now and the election is to work towards this goal and prepare the ground.

The motion Janice prepared for the 2015 spring conference resulted in this:

and she believes that we need to ensure that this is still the case at the next election.
