

TRIPLE BOGEY, JUSTIN?

Your Lineage Logistics
sponsor is out of bounds

In 2021, Justin Thomas uttered a homophobic slur on a live mic at the Sentry Tournament Of Champions in Hawaii. Justin supposedly went through an individual training program to “become a better person”. He even agreed to help Titleist with inclusion and diversity trainings of employees.

However, it seems Justin hasn't really changed his ways. One of Justin's top sponsors is Lineage Logistics, which has an abysmal track record. Lineage has:

! Over $3 million in air pollution violations*

! More than $1 million in workplace safety penalties*

! OSHA and EPA investigations across multiple facilities

At its cold storage facility in Seattle, Lineage is refusing to give its workers a fair contract – pushing them to the brink of a labor dispute.

Federal labor complaints of bad faith bargaining allege Lineage unlawfully negotiated directly with its employees and in doing so misrepresented eligibility for healthcare benefits to workers.

BE A BETTER PERSON, JUSTIN

Drop Lineage & get your game back on track.
