TENNESSEE RIGHT TO LIFE 2026 ART CONTEST FAQ

Who is eligible to participate?

Students from East Tennessee in grades 9 through 12 are eligible to participate. Simply submit the registration form by April 10, 2026.

When/Where will the contest be held?

Tuesday, April 14 at 6:00 PM in conjunction with the TRL Oratory Contest at the Tennessee Right to Life office. Winners of the Art Contest will be announced along with winners of the Oratory Contest. Arrangements should be made with Tennessee Right to Life to deliver the artwork by NOON the day before the contest.

Must I be present at the contest to win?

Participants and their families are encouraged to attend the contest to listen to the Oratory Contest participants and for the awards presentation, but attendance is not required to participate or place in the Art Contest.

What are the rules for the art projects?

1. Contestants should create an original work of art illustrating a pro-life aspect of one of the life issues: abortion, infanticide, stem cell research, or euthanasia. Any medium may be used including sculpture and photography, but NOTHING computer generated. No graphic depiction of violence is permitted.
2. Drawings or photography entries must range in size between 12"x 18" and 24" x 36" on canvas or poster board.
3. Submit registration form by mail or email by April 10, 2026.
4. You may title your work and write a description, but it is not required. Please submit the title/description on a piece of paper apart from the work itself.

What are the prizes?

The Knox County Chapter of Tennessee Right to Life will award $100, $50 and $25 for the top three winners. In addition to the cash prizes, a special gift will be given to all participants.
