Motivation

Why are you running for this office?

Because I want to use the congressional men's room

What are your values, and how did you get them?

I'm very liberal and believe in defiant compliance where you ask for stuff while you refuse to be doing what your told

What communities do you represent, and how do they hold you accountable?

I represent the afterhours community, I represent the industry worker community, I represent the trans community, I represent the represent the felon community, I represent anyone in need of recognition love and who has felt isolation

What three endorsements are you most proud of?

I have none, endorsements are for others to communicate

What are the top three issues you will work on, and what is your plan for achieving your goals?

Universal Basic Income, Healthcare Reform and Equality

What local and state commissions or policy bodies have you served on?

None

What political organizations are you a member of (e.g., democratic clubs)?

Democratic party

None

What campaigns have you worked on?

None

What recent candidates and ballot measures have you supported financially?

None

What is one concrete thing about the League of Pissed Off Voters (for example, something we have done, said, or published) that you appreciate and that would make you proud to have our endorsement?

I love your name and would love to know more

Questions for Federal Office

What will be your legislative priorities if elected to Congress?

Snap for all and a health care amendment

Whose voices are not being heard in Congress? What new voices would you bring to Congress?

We have a poor tax we ignore, we elect lawyers and wealthy people to legislate poor issues

Please describe your supporter base. Which parts of the City are part of your political base?

My base is the tenderloin and my base are the night owls

Have you taken contributions from police unions or other law enforcement organizations?

No not will i

What is a top legislative achievement or policy you are most proud of delivering for California?

I have none to offer but I'll sure try

Which recently cut federal services would you most prioritize in restoring funding to San Francisco?

There are so many but I fear for the cuts in HIV and other sexual health programs. SF has been a pioneer in the fight against HIV and now we have lost much of that to an administration.

Did you join educators at the UESF picket line during the strike? Which school site did you go to, when, and why?

I did not, I did stop by at an event Civic Center but only to support in the crowd and not to wash over my politics
