Austerity isn't working. Millions of people face an uncertain and impoverished future, as our wages, jobs, conditions and welfare provision are cut. We're not 'all in it together', as luxury goods and housing are snapped up by the super-rich while millions of young people are under- or unemployed and real wages are falling at the fastest rate in history. Here in Coventry we have the largest food bank in the country, yet we live in one of the richest countries in the world.

The People's Assembly Against Austerity aims to bring together campaigns against cuts and privatisation with trade unionists in a fight for social justice, and to develop a strategy for resistance that will mobilise millions of people against the Con-Dem government.
