

Grid Hardening Priority for 2024 RPT Conventions

Resolved that protecting our electrical grid and other critical infrastructure should be a legislative priority of the RPT. RPT should call for immediate passage of legislation to direct and fund the hardening of electrical transmission and generation facilities and other critical infrastructures against the threat of solar disturbances, nuclear electromagnetic pulse (EMP) attacks, foreign and domestic terrorists, and to provide measurable resiliency to critical infrastructure against all-hazards in Texas.