Bernard Gribbin Trial Information

Brother Gribbin was a dedicated and respected transit operator, known for his unwavering commitment to serving the people of Philadelphia with honor and professionalism. His sudden and tragic death was not only a devastating loss to his family and friends but also to our entire union family. Bernard exemplified the values of solidarity, integrity, and service and his absence is deeply felt by all who had the privilege of working alongside him. This trial represents a significant moment for our union, Bernard's loved ones, and the broader community as we continue to seek answers and justice. In connection with the events surrounding Brother Gribbin's passing, a trial has been scheduled as follows:

Trial Set for Monday, September 15, 2025

Location: 1301 Filbert Street Philadelphia, PA 19107

Room Number: 1007

Date: Monday, September 15, 2025

Time: 9:00 AM

Your Presence Matters

TWU Local 234 encourages all members who can attend the trial to do so in a show of unity, respect, and support. Your presence will serve as a powerful reminder that Brother Gribbin was not alone, that we stand together, in life and beyond. Let us come together to honor his memory, support his family, and ensure his service and sacrifice are never forgotten.

WE MUST & WE WILL
