TWU Local 234 Accident Reduction Coordinators (ARC) Protecting Members, Preventing Injuries, Promoting Safety

Safety in the workplace is a shared responsibility, and TWU Local 234's Accident Reduction Coordinators (ARC) play a critical role in identifying hazards, preventing injuries, and ensuring that safety concerns are addressed promptly and effectively. ARC members are available across departments and locations to support you, advocate for safer working conditions, and help reduce accidents systemwide. Below are your current ARC representatives and the areas they cover.

See Something? Say Something

TWU Local 234 encourages all members to report safety hazards immediately. If you identify an unsafe condition: Submit a report using the Safety Reporting Link. Notify your ARC member for your location or department Reporting hazards helps prevent injuries, protects your coworkers, and strengthens our union's ability to demand safe working conditions. Safety is everyone's responsibility — and together, we make the workplace safer.
