

FINCHLEY PROGRESSIVE SYNAGOGUE

Needs somebody fantastic to be our new
COMMUNITY EDUCATION AND ENGAGEMENT MANAGER
£18,000 (20 hours a week)

Flexible Working, Start Date Negotiable

The Role?

To lead our Educational and Jewish experience programmes for young people in our community and support with some adult education. Regular educational events for our young people currently include:

- Shabbat Cheder during term time
- Regular festival activities for families
- Monthly events for our Tots – currently ‘Shabbatots’ and Rabbi’s tea parties
- Education for our Post Barmitzvah Teens – Our Kabbalat Torah programme.

Our Synagogue is an inclusive community that emphasises warmth, intimacy and curiosity in all things Jewish. In this role you would have opportunities to be creative and innovative and to work alongside our inspirational Rabbi, Rebecca Birk.

Who?

Someone who has experience in Jewish Education and who has creativity and a passion for engaging young people; someone with great organisational skills and strong communication skills. Someone with a can-do attitude.

If you are interested in taking on this exciting, varied and interesting role, do get in touch. You will be working as a key member of our community committed to building a kinder, better world.

How to I apply?

Expressions of interest to honsec@fps.org.

Start date is flexible, but we would love to have you in post ready for September.
