Utah Republican Party Bylaws

Official Version

As of March 20, 2026

1.0 MEMBERSHIP

- A. A member of the Utah Republican Party is someone who is currently legally registered to vote in the state of Utah, is affiliated as a Republican on their voter registration, is not a member of any other political party, and has not been removed from the party.

2.0 GENERAL COMMITTEE ORGANIZATION

- A. Binding Business. No elected or appointed committee described in Article V and Article VI of the Party Constitution shall conduct binding business unless a quorum is present, including those participating by an equivalent means of simultaneous aural or audio communication according to rules established by that committee. A quorum is a majority of the members of the committee.
- B. Removal. Members of elected or appointed committees described in Article VI of the Party Constitution may be removed by a 60% vote of a quorum of the State Central Committee.
- C. The State Party Executive Director and the State Party General Counsel shall be ex-officio, non-voting members of all party committees, except the Audit Committee.

2.1 ELECTED COMMITTEES

- A. Letter of Intent. Candidates who wish to run for a position on an elected committee must submit a letter of intent to the State Party. The letter of intent must be received at the State Party headquarters at least 48 hours prior to the election.

- B. Term. Members of elected committees described in Article VI of the Party Constitution are elected for a two-year term. The election shall take place at the first Central Committee meeting following the state organizing convention.
- C. Chair. The individuals who receive the greatest number of votes in each committee election shall be responsible for organizing the first committee meeting, at which time the committee shall elect a chair from among the committee members.
- D. Absenteeism. Any member of an elected committee who has two unexcused absences from meetings of the elected committees during their current term, shall be automatically removed and the seat declared vacant. An absence from an elected committee meeting is excused if written or verbal notice is given to the elected committee chair within five (5) days of the elected committee meeting.
- E. Vacancies. Vacancies on elected committees shall be filled by an election at the first State Central Committee Meeting following the vacancy, provided it occurs before notice is given of that State Central Committee Meeting. A person elected to fill a vacancy shall only complete the remainder of the term of that person he/she is replacing.

2.2 APPOINTED COMMITTEES

- A. Chair. The State Party Chair shall select a chair for each appointed committee described in Article VI of the Party Constitution.
- B. Vacancies. Vacancies on committees appointed by the State Party Chair shall be filled by appointment of the State Party Chair, subject to ratification by the State Central Committee. Vacancies on committees appointed by the State Central Committee shall be filled by the State Central Committee.
- C. Removal. Members of committees appointed by the State Party Chair serve at the discretion of the State Party Chair. Members of committees appointed by the State Central Committee serve at the discretion of the State Central Committee.

2.3 CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS COMMITTEE

- A. Number of Members. The Constitution and Bylaws Committee shall have seven (7) members. The Chair of the Constitution and Bylaws Committee shall be a member of the State Executive Committee.
- B. Purpose. The Constitution and Bylaws Committee is the guardian of the Party Constitution and Bylaws.

- C. Changes. The Constitution and Bylaws Committee is responsible for reviewing the Party Constitution and Bylaws and making recommendations to the State Central Committee for changes as the need arises.

2.4 AUDIT COMMITTEE

- A. Number of Members. The Audit Committee shall have five (5) members. The Chair of the Audit Committee shall be a member of the State Executive Committee.
- B. Purpose. The Audit Committee shall have access, by request, to the financial documents and financial reports of the Party. The request shall be approved by a majority of the Audit Committee and shall only be shared with the members of the State Central Committee. The Audit Committee shall give a report at every State Central Committee meeting with recommendations.
- C. The Audit Committee shall conduct an annual internal audit of the past fiscal year and release a report to the State Central Committee within 60 days of the Audit Committee receiving materials required for the audit. The State Central Committee shall vote to determine if the Audit Committee's internal audit is acceptable for fiscal accountability. If not, the State Central Committee shall direct the Audit Committee to select a qualified CPA firm to perform a procedural or full audit of the Party's financial records for the past fiscal year. The Audit Committee shall oversee any audit and present a report to the Executive Committee for review and its recommendations before submitting the report to the State Central Committee for approval. The Audit Committee shall oversee the implementation of any recommendations made by the qualified CPA firm in any audit, and approved by the State Central Committee.
- D. Exclusion. No State Party Officer or State Party employee may be a member of the Audit Committee.

2.5 BUDGET COMMITTEE

- A. Number of Members. The Budget Committee shall have six (6) members. One member shall be the State Party Treasurer and one member shall be an Audit Committee member selected by the Audit Committee. In the event a budget committee has not been duly constituted as outlined in Article VI A of the Utah Republican Party's Constitution the elected Congressional District Representatives to the executive committee, audit committee chair and the state party treasurer shall form the budget committee until a budget committee is approved by the State Central Committee.
- B. Preparation of Budget. Prior to the last State Central Committee meeting of the fiscal year, the State Party Officers shall prepare a proposed budget for the next fiscal year. The Budget Committee shall review this proposed budget and make any recommendations for change.

- C. Review by Executive Committee. The proposed budget shall be submitted to the State Executive Committee for review and recommendations, for approval or disapproval of the proposed budget, before submitting the proposed budget to the State Central Committee.
- D. Approval by the State Central Committee. The Budget Committee shall submit the proposed budget to the State Central Committee for approval at the last State Central Committee Meeting of the fiscal year.
- E. No Approved Budget. In the event the Party must operate without an approved budget, the State Party Officers are authorized to raise funds and incur the minimal expenses deemed necessary by the State Party Officers to keep the Party operating. Such expenses include, but are not limited to rent, utilities, payroll, and postage. Any expenses totaling more than $1,500 payable to any one individual or business over a three-month period shall be approved by a committee consisting of the four party officers and the elected Congressional District Representatives to the executive committee.
- F. Retained Deficit. In the event that the monthly financial statements of the Party, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, reflect a retained deficit, the State Party Officers shall revise the budget with the help and approval of the Budget Committee. The revised budget shall take into account any actions necessary, such as fund raising and reductions in expenses, to eliminate the retained deficit within a reasonable period not to exceed six months. Should the party retain a deficit which exceeds six months, all expenses shall be reviewed and approved by a committee consisting of the four party officers and the elected Congressional District Representatives to the executive committee. Any action impacting any expense incurred by the party more than $10,000 shall be approved by the state central committee.

3.0 STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

- A. Meeting Dates. During the month following the state organizing or nominating convention, the State Party Officers shall determine the dates for the next four (4) regularly scheduled State Central Committee Meetings and shall notify all State Central Committee members of these dates by mail. At each State Central Committee Meeting the dates for the next four meetings shall be announced and notice of these meetings shall be sent with the notice of the Central Committee Meeting.
- B. Quorum. The State Central Committee must have a quorum in attendance to conduct business. A quorum is defined as a majority of voting members of the SCC.

C. Agenda.

1. The State Party Chair proposes the meeting agenda, which shall include an opening prayer, Pledge of Allegiance, and a single Platform plank reading (not to exceed two minutes). Any binding business requiring written material, e.g., minutes, budgets, resolutions, etc., shall be included in the written notice of the meeting, such as an attachment or digital link on the agenda. Any State Central Committee member may submit agenda items if submitted in written form and received by the Secretary by 11:59 p.m. twenty-eight (28) consecutive calendar days prior to the meeting. Names, phone numbers and email addresses of individuals submitting resolutions and or amendments must be included.
2. Notwithstanding the prior paragraph, officers and elected committees acting in their elected capacity may submit agenda items by email by 11:59 p.m. to the Secretary two days prior to the official notice to be sent. To be included with the official notice of the meeting, resolutions from SCC members regarding party positions or statements shall be emailed to the Secretary by 11:59 p.m. two days prior to the official notice being sent. Any agenda item or written materials, including those failing to meet the deadlines outlined, may be added to the proposed agenda at the Chair's discretion prior to the official meeting notice being sent to State Central Committee members.
3. Unless extended by a majority vote of a quorum of the State Central Committee, official SCC meetings shall adjourn not later than four hours from the adoption of the agenda of the meeting.

D. Disclosure and Accountability. Upon the request of 25% or more members present, a vote on a question by the State Central Committee shall be by a method (roll call, electronic, or comparable means) that records the vote of individual State Central Committee members. Any final amendment vote of the Utah Republican Party Constitution or Bylaws by the State Central Committee shall also require a recorded vote in the same manner, unless a member moves for a "Consent Vote" before the voting begins, whereby the Chair shall call for all those opposed to the amendment to indicate as directed by the Chair. If fewer than 15 members indicate they are opposed, a Consent Vote will be utilized, otherwise voting shall proceed as a roll call vote. For a Consent Vote, those members that indicate they are opposed shall be recorded as a "no" vote, and all other currently credentialed members shall be recorded as a "consent" vote. All recorded voting results and consent votes, stating exactly the question voted on, shall be publicly and permanently disclosed on the Party's website within 14 days of the vote as a record of official Party business.

E. Meetings Held Electronically.

1. Remote Participation Allowed. SCC members may participate through an internet meeting service. An internet meeting service is a full-featured service that integrates audio and video, text, and voting capabilities. Meeting in person is preferred.
2. Member Participation.
 - a. Members attending electronically shall have the right to listen and to vote, subject to limitations established in these bylaws.
 - b. Additional methods of participation shall be subject to meeting rules and may be limited by technological availability.
 - c. To allow for differences in internet meeting services, the Chair may establish rules, consistent with these bylaws, to govern electronic meeting participation, including obtaining the floor, making a motion, displaying motions, interrupting another member, credentialing, signing in and out, and voting.
 - d. The Chair shall provide the rules for electronic participation to all members of the SCC prior to beginning the SCC meeting.
 - e. Each member is responsible for providing his or her audio and internet connections. No action shall be invalidated due to a member's inability to connect.
3. Quorum. Members that attend in person and those that attend electronically shall be counted toward the quorum.
4. Location. Except in cases of government-declared emergency in which in-person meetings are limited or prohibited, SCC meetings shall be held at a designated physical location, and the Chair must be present in the meeting room of said location.
5. Log-in Information. At least 48 hours prior to each meeting, the State Party shall e-mail all pertinent information for electronic participation to members of the SCC. Pertinent information includes, but is not limited to, the following items: the time of the meeting, the URL and codes necessary to connect to the internet meeting service.
6. Electronic Credentialing. SCC members who desire to participate electronically should notify the state party at least 24 hours in advance whenever possible. Electronic credentialing shall begin at least 30 minutes before the start of the meeting. Electronic participants are required to show valid identification, consistent with requirements for in-person attendees.

7. Technical Requirements and Malfunctions. Each member is responsible for his or her audio and internet connections; no action shall be invalidated on the grounds that the loss of, or poor quality of, a member's individual connection prevented participation in the meeting.
8. Loss of Internet Connection at Meeting Site. If the internet connection is disrupted and cannot be restored, the body may continue to conduct business if a quorum is present in person.
9. Forced Disconnections. The Chair may cause or direct the disconnection or muting of a member's connection if it is causing undue interference with the meeting. The Chair's decision to do so, which is subject to a non-debatable appeal that can be made by any member, shall be announced during the meeting and recorded in the minutes.
10. Signing In and Out. Members shall identify themselves as required to sign into the internet meeting service and shall maintain video and audio access throughout the meeting whenever present but shall sign out upon any departure before adjournment.
11. Voting. Members voting remotely shall maintain a live video feed at the time they cast their vote. For secret ballots, votes shall be taken by the anonymous voting feature of the internet meeting service, or another electronic method that does not identify that member's vote as belonging to him or her. No votes may be cast electronically before the Chair calls for the vote, unless approved by the body. The Chair's announcement of the voting result shall include the number of members voting on each side of the question and the number, if any, who explicitly respond to acknowledge their presence without casting a vote. Business may also be conducted by unanimous consent. No proxy voting is allowed electronically, except for those allowed a proxy by the Constitution and/or Bylaws.
12. Candidate Participation. A candidate for an election conducted by the SCC, or their designee, shall have the right to address the committee electronically. Candidates who are members of the committee shall also have the right to make motions pertaining to the election portions of the meeting.
13. Public Access. The state party shall not provide electronic access or allow electronic participation for non-SCC members.

14. Executive Session. Participation in the executive session shall be in-person only.

4.0 STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

A. Purpose. The State Executive Committee is an advisory committee to the State Central Committee and the State Party Officers. Any Party Committee or State Party Officer may submit a proposal to the State Executive Committee for review and its recommendation for approval or disapproval of the proposal prior to submitting such proposal to the State Central Committee.

B. Auxiliaries. The State Executive Committee shall ensure that groups petitioning for official auxiliary status meet the following minimum criteria:

1. The group has submitted a copy of the group's bylaws to the State Executive Committee for review and;
2. The group's stated purpose and bylaws comply with and assist in the Party's purpose of electing Republicans to office and;
3. The group provides a list of at least 25 active members and their contact information, which shall include at least the member's full name and voter registration address, as well as birthdate or state voter ID, if they are registered to vote, to the State Executive Committee and;
4. All voting members of the group are registered Republicans, except for teenage and college age groups who are not old enough to vote and;
5. The group accepts all registered Republicans who meet eligibility requirements as set forth in the auxiliary's bylaws. Teenage and college groups may accept members not old enough to vote as set forth in their bylaws and;
6. The group's documents outline a method of election of officers with terms of office not being greater than two years. The auxiliary shall provide written proof an election for officers has been held within the past two years with a minimum of 25 credentialed members, or 10 credentialed members for teenage groups, participating in the election. For the purposes of this section, written proof means an auditable tally of votes cast from a recognized survey or election software or paper ballots, and evidence that participants in the election were properly credentialed and;
7. The group has met at least quarterly with a minimum of 10 members in attendance for at least a year. Notice of all meetings shall be noticed to all members.

- C. To remain a Party Auxiliary, an Auxiliary shall re-petition by 11:59 p.m. on the night prior to the first State Central Committee meeting following each State Organizing Convention by providing documents meeting criteria established in Section 4B to the Secretary by email. Any Auxiliary that fails to submit their documents by this deadline shall be automatically suspended until reapproved according to the rules of the section.
- D. Groups applying for the first time for auxiliary status may submit documents by email to the Secretary at any time during the year. Once all documents have been received, they may be reviewed at the next regularly scheduled Executive Committee meeting and may be approved at the next regularly scheduled State Central Committee meeting.
- E. The State Executive Committee shall also assist and mentor Auxiliaries to remain productive in helping the State Party achieve its goals. If the State Executive Committee determines that an Auxiliary no longer meets any of the above criteria, it may recommend rescinding the auxiliary status of that group to the State Central Committee.

5.0 PARTY OPERATIONS

- A. Operations Manual. The State Party Officers shall have a written manual that contains office, administrative, and financial procedures. This manual shall be available to members of the State Central Committee during regular business hours at the State Party headquarters.
- B. Review. The Operations Manual shall be reviewed by the State Executive Committee in the same year after each nominating convention.
- C. Interim Policy. The State Party Officers may adopt new policies and procedures that will be subject to ratification at the next State Central Committee Meeting.
- D. Changes. The State Party Officers shall propose any changes to the Operations Manual for review by the State Executive Committee and approval by the State Central Committee.
- E. The State Party Chair shall serve as liaison with the Lieutenant Governor of the State of Utah on all matters relating to the Party's relationship with the State and shall carry out this responsibility subject to the directives of the State Central Committee.
- F. The Utah Republican Party will not certify, recognize, assist, or support a candidate for an elective office who has filed in the same election as a candidate for more than one political party for said office.

6.0 PARTY OFFICER ELECTIONS

- A. All properly filed candidates for party officer shall be given access to at no cost and at the same time, the electronic contact information of state delegates. Such information shall include the name, address, phone number, email address, precinct number, Utah House district, Utah Senate district, Congressional district, and basis of eligibility for each delegate. Access to this information shall terminate if and when the candidate is eliminated or withdraws from the race.

7.0 NOTIFICATION

- A. Form and Date Given. Whenever the Constitution of the Utah Republican Party or these Bylaws require notice to be given, such notice must be in writing. The written notice may be hand delivered, mailed, or sent by facsimile or email. Unless otherwise specified, notice shall be deemed to have been given (i) if hand delivered, on the date the notice is actually delivered, (ii) if mailed, first class, postage prepaid, on the date the notice is postmarked, and (iii) if sent by facsimile or email, on the date the facsimile or email transmission is completed.
- B. Time for Filing. Whenever the Constitution of the Utah Republican Party, these Bylaws, or adopted rules require a filing or submission to the Utah Republican Party, such filing must be in writing. The written filing may be hand delivered, delivered via mail or courier, or sent by facsimile or email. Unless otherwise specified, the filing or submission shall be considered timely (i) if hand delivered, before 5:00 p.m. on or before the established deadline, (ii) if delivered via mail or courier, before 5:00 p.m. on or before the established deadline, and (iii) if sent by facsimile or email, the transmission is completed by 5:00 p.m. on or before the established deadline. All time deadlines imply the local time of the Utah Republican Party, which may be Mountain Standard Time (MST) or Mountain Daylight Time (MDT), depending on the date of submission. The burden of confirmation lies with the individual filing or submitting.
- C. Computation of Time. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by the Constitution of the Utah Republican Party or these Bylaws, the day of the act or event from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. Unless otherwise specified, all time periods shall be consecutive days with no regard to holidays or weekends.
- D. Legal Holidays. For purposes of the Constitution of the Utah Republican Party and these Bylaws the following-named days are legal holidays:
 - 1. January 1, called New Year's Day;
 - 2. The third Monday of January, observed as the anniversary of the birth of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., also known as Human Rights Day;

3. The third Monday of February, observed as the anniversary of the birth of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, also known as Presidents' Day;
4. The last Monday of May, called Memorial Day;
5. July 4, called Independence Day;
6. July 24, called Pioneer Day;
7. The first Monday of September, called Labor Day;
8. The second Monday of October, called Columbus Day;
9. The fourth Thursday of November, called Thanksgiving Day; and
10. December 25, called Christmas.

If any of the foregoing holidays falls on Saturday, then the preceding Friday shall be the holiday. If any of the foregoing holidays falls on a Sunday, then the following Monday shall be the holiday.

8.0 CONVENTIONS AND ELECTIONS

- A. Letter of Intent. Candidates who wish to run for any office elected at the State Party Convention must submit a letter of intent to the State Party. The letter of intent must be received at the State Party Headquarters no later than 5 p.m. on the Thursday which occurs 28 days prior to the State Party Convention.
- B. Allocation and Binding of National Delegation. Prior to any deadline set by the Republican National Committee Rules, the State Central Committee shall certify a presidential primary or a presidential caucus as the Republican Presidential Preference Vote. All National Convention delegates and alternates shall be allocated to the candidate receiving a majority of the votes of the statewide vote in the Republican Presidential Preference Vote, if allowed by the rules of the RNC. On the first ballot, the national delegation shall be bound to vote for the candidate who has received a majority of the votes in the Republican Presidential Primary Preference Vote, but the delegation shall not be allocated nor bound on any subsequent ballots.

If no candidate receives a majority of the vote, then candidates who receive at least 15% of the vote shall have delegates and alternates allocated and bound to the candidates in proportion to each candidate's share of the total votes cast for the candidates who meet the minimum threshold, beginning with the candidate who receives the most votes and so forth, until all the delegates are allocated. The delegate allocation to each candidate shall be rounded up to the next whole number.

If no candidate receives a majority of the vote and fewer than three candidates meet the minimum threshold, then the delegates and alternates shall be allocated and bound to the candidates in proportion to each candidate's share of the total votes cast, beginning with the candidate who receives the most votes and so forth, until all the delegates are allocated. The delegate allocation to each candidate shall be rounded up to the next whole number.

If a candidate who was allocated delegates is not a candidate at the national convention according to the rules of that convention, then all the delegates shall be re-allocated and bound to the remaining candidates in accordance to the rules in this section.

- C. Eligibility for the Republican Presidential Preference Vote. Only voters who are registered Republicans may vote in the Republican Presidential Preference Vote. The Republican Presidential Preference Vote shall be open to registered Republicans, and unaffiliated voters requesting a Republican ballot who affiliate at the polls as a Republican.

- D. In the event that three or more candidates are nominated for the same single seat office, the convention may use multiple ballots or preference voting to choose party nominees or multiple ballots or preference voting to choose party officers.
 - 1. In the case of preference voting, delegates may indicate a 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc. preference of all qualified candidates.
 - a. Delegates shall mark a 1st preference for the ballot to be valid.
 - b. Delegates may list additional preferences not to exceed the number of qualified candidates.
 - c. Preference votes for no candidate or for a candidate not officially nominated shall invalidate that preference position only.
 - d. Ballots containing only preferences for candidates who have been eliminated will not count as an official ballot for purposes of vote percentage tabulation.
 - e. On the first ballot, the candidate receiving the fewest 1st preference votes shall be eliminated.

- i. Ballots cast for the eliminated candidate shall be reviewed for further preference. The highest preference for a remaining candidate shall be added to that remaining candidates total vote.
- ii. The candidate with the fewest votes after step (D)(1)(e)(1) shall be eliminated.
- iii. The process will continue until:
 - a. A candidate for party office at an organizing convention surpasses a 50% total vote and is declared elected.
 - b. A candidate for party nomination at a nominating convention has surpassed a 60% total vote and is declared the nominee or
 - c. Two candidates for party nomination at a nominating convention have not been eliminated and neither candidate for that nomination has surpassed 60%. The two remaining candidates are to be referred to a Primary Election.

E. The final list of state delegates for both the State Nominating and State Organizing conventions described in Article XII 2.K and Article XII 7.B of the State Party Constitution shall identify the attending precinct delegates and the precinct alternate delegates for each precinct. After this final list of state delegates is submitted, no substitutions are allowed, except due to death or disqualification of the listed delegate or the listed alternate.

8.1 LEGISLATIVE VACANCIES

When a vacancy occurs for any reason in the office of representative or senator in the state legislature and if the prior officeholder was a Republican, the State Party Chair shall submit to the lieutenant governor the name of the replacement selected as follows:

A. Multi-County Districts.

- 1. If the district encompasses more than one county, within 30 days of the vacancy, the State Party Chair shall call a special caucus of the state delegates residing in the legislative district, who shall elect the replacement to fill the legislative vacancy. The caucus shall be held in one of the counties in the district. The first candidate to reach a majority shall be declared a winner.

2. Notwithstanding the prior paragraph, if the vacancy occurs within 60 days of the next nominating or organization convention, the State Party Chair may call the special caucus to coincide with the nominating or organization convention. The convention does not have to be held in one of the counties in the district.
3. Notice of the caucus shall be mailed to the delegates at least 14 days prior to the caucus. A quorum for the purpose of conducting business shall consist of any number of delegates attending. Candidates must file in writing at least 7 days prior to the caucus. The caucus shall elect one person to fill the vacancy using the same voting method as was used at the prior state nominating convention.
4. If the vacancy occurs during a regular session of the legislature, the State Party Chair may declare the caucus an emergency. In that case, notice of the caucus may be given by notifying at least 3/4 of the delegates by telephone at least 24 hours prior to the caucus, a quorum shall consist of 1/2 of the total number of delegates residing in the district, and nominations shall be accepted from the floor.

B. Single-County Districts.

1. In legislative districts that are identical to or completely within the boundaries of one county, the candidate to fill the vacancy shall be determined according to that county party's governing documents. If those documents do not contain a specific provision for filling the vacancy, the vacancy shall be filled by a special caucus of county delegates according to the provisions of section A.

8.2 U.S HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES VACANCIES

A. When a vacancy occurs for any reason in the office of U. S. House of Representatives the State Party Chair shall submit to the Lieutenant Governor the name of the nominee selected as follows:

1. Within 45 days, or time prescribed by law, of the vacancy, the State Party Chair shall call a special caucus of the state delegates residing in the respective U.S. House of Representatives district, which shall elect the Party's nominee to proceed to the special election. The caucus shall be held in one of the counties in the district. Notice of the caucus shall be mailed to the delegates at least 14 days prior to the caucus. Candidates must file in writing at least 7 days prior to the caucus. These deadlines shall be adjusted by the State Party Chair to comply with state law, if necessary.
2. Voting at the special nominating convention/caucus will continue until:

- a. Where no Primary Election is called by state law, or if only one nominee is permitted by state law, a candidate for party nomination at a special nominating convention surpasses a 50% total vote and is declared the party nominee.
 - b. Where a Primary Election is called by state law, a candidate for party nomination at a special nominating convention who has reached a 60% total vote is declared the nominee or
 - c. Two candidates for party nomination at a special nominating convention who have not been eliminated and neither candidate for that nomination has reached 60%, the two remaining candidates are to be referred to a Primary Election.
3. A quorum for the purpose of conducting business shall consist of any number of delegates attending the special nominating convention/caucus. The special nominating convention/caucus shall use the same voting method as was used at the prior state nominating convention.

8.3 STATE PARTY NEUTRALITY

- A. State Party Officers, National Committee members, and paid staff shall assist and provide, without discrimination or restriction, equal access to Party information and services within their responsibility to all Republican candidates, with the exception of candidates in the primary election who advanced to the primary election without qualifying through the nominating convention.
- B. State Party Officers, National Committee members, and paid staff shall not publicly endorse or oppose any Republican candidate for partisan public office in Utah while the candidate is opposed by another Republican candidate for the same office. This neutrality requirement shall not apply to the U.S. presidential race or to candidates who qualify for the primary election through the nominating convention.
- C. In the event convention nominees are opposed in the primary election by candidates who did not qualify through the convention, the following apply to state Party Officers, National Committee members, and paid staff:
 1. They shall offer active and equitable support to candidates advanced to the primary election through the nominating convention, including party information, services, and other resources.

2. They shall not support or provide information, services, or other resources to any candidate in the primary election who did not qualify for the primary election through the nominating convention.
- D. After the primary election, the party shall fully support the Republican nominee in the general election, regardless of the candidate's path to the primary election.
 - E. A State Party Officer, or National Committee member, or paid staff shall not use State Party resources or their official title as such in any communication to the State Central Committee or to the State Convention delegates that supports or opposes a platform amendment, a resolution, or an amendment to the Constitution or Bylaws unless the issue has been approved by the State Central Committee or unless the State Party Chair is correcting a misrepresentation of facts regarding an issue that has been communicated to the State Central Committee or State Convention delegates either in writing or verbally.
 - F. Any Party Officer who has publicly expressed their personal support or opposition to any platform amendment, resolution, or amendment to the Constitution or Bylaws may not chair the portion of the State Central Committee meeting or State Convention in which that measure is contested.
 - G. Failure to comply with the provisions in this section of the Bylaws may result in disciplinary action by the State Central Committee, provided that prior notice of the action is given. Disciplinary action may include: private or public reprimand, suspension, or expulsion from office. Expulsion shall be made in accordance with the threshold provision in Article III.D.2 of the Constitution.

N. Presidential Electors and National Delegates (Nominating Convention Only).

1. The Convention shall select ____ at-large Presidential Electors and ____ Presidential Elector per congressional district, for a total of ____ Electors. When filing for the position of Elector, candidates should specify for which type of Presidential Elector position (at-large congressional district) he/she wishes to run.

2. The Convention shall select ____ at-large national delegates including (3) from each congressional district and ____ at-large alternate national delegates including (3) from each congressional district. When filing for the position of national delegate, candidates shall specify for which type of national delegate position (at-large national delegate, at-large alternate national delegate or congressional district national delegate, alternate congressional district national delegate) he/she wishes to run. All national and alternate delegate candidates shall sign a pledge that they will abide by the state party and national party rules and cast their vote at national convention according to whom they are bound.
3. All state delegates at the Convention shall vote for the at-large Presidential Electors, but only the delegates from each congressional district shall vote for their respective congressional district Presidential Elector.
4. The two at-large Elector candidates with the highest vote totals shall be the at-large Electors. The next six at-large elector candidates with the highest vote totals shall be ordered as alternates. The elector candidate from each congressional district with the highest vote total shall be the Elector for that district. The next three elector candidates in each congressional district with the highest vote totals shall be ordered as the alternate congressional district Electors.
5. All state delegates at the Convention shall vote for the at-large national delegates and alternates, but only the delegates from each congressional district shall vote for their respective congressional national delegates and alternates.
6. The top ____ at-large and alternate national delegates with the highest vote totals shall be the at-large and alternate national delegates. The top ____ congressional district national delegates and alternates with the highest vote total shall be the congressional national delegates and alternates for that district.

8. Candidates for Presidential Elector, National Delegate, and Alternate National Delegate must have registered and participated, either in person, through allowed absentee procedures, or by administering the meetings, in the most recent caucus (neighborhood elections) meetings.

9. Any Republican presidential elector from the state of Utah that attempts to vote for a candidate other than the Republican presidential nominee in the electoral college shall be automatically and immediately removed from the office of presidential elector by the Chair of the Utah Republican Party and the Chair shall appoint another elector who will vote for the Republican presidential nominee. Candidates who file with the Utah Republican Party to become presidential electors shall sign an agreement with the party stating they will cast their electoral vote for the Republican presidential nominee from the general election. The agreement shall include language acknowledging that if an elector attempts to vote for any candidate other than the Republican nominee, that vote will not be counted, the elector shall be deemed to have vacated their position, and the Chair of the Utah Republican Party shall be obligated to immediately appoint another elector to fill the vacancy.

9.0 CANDIDATE CERTIFICATION, DISCLOSURE, AND DATA ACCESS

- A. Eligibility to run for office. A person seeking to run as a Republican candidate for partisan elected office must demonstrate continuous voter registration with the Republican Party affiliation for the previous one year.
- B. Candidates who wish to obtain the nomination of the Utah Republican Party to run as a Republican for any federal, statewide, state legislative, or state school board office shall sign and submit a completed Candidate Certification Form declaring that they will 1) comply with the rules and processes set forth in the Utah Republican Party Constitution and these Bylaws, 2) disclose their acceptance of the State Party platform with itemized exceptions and 3) certify that they are eligible under local, state and federal law to run for the office for which they have filed. The Candidate Certification Form shall be submitted electronically to The Utah Republican Party as instructed on the Utah Republican website within seven (7) consecutive days following the last day for filing candidate registration filings with any elections official within the State of Utah. The Candidate Certification Form shall be available on the State Party website.

The Candidate Certification Form shall include the following language: “I have read the Utah Republican Party Platform, Constitution, and Bylaws. I support that Platform, Constitution, and Bylaws except for any provisions I explicitly outline below, and accept it as the standard by which my performance as a candidate and as an officeholder should be evaluated. I certify that I am not a candidate, officer, delegate, or position holder in any Party other than the Republican Party and I am eligible under applicable local, state and federal law to run for the office for which I have filed.”

- C. Signed Candidate Certification Forms shall be posted on the Utah Republican Party website with a prominent link on the home page within seven (7) consecutive days after candidate submission.

- D. If a candidate has not completed the Candidate Certification Form by the deadline, the Party Secretary will give notice to the candidate that they have five (5) consecutive days to complete the form. Should any candidate fail to submit the Candidate Certification Form by 5:00 p.m. following the notice, the Party Chairman shall announce this failure (1) within five (5) consecutive days on the party website, and (2) at the convention immediately prior to balloting for that candidate's office. The Party Chair shall in accordance with Utah Code 20A-9-202(5) file an objection with the Utah Elections Office in a timely manner to any candidate who has not filed a Candidate Certification and Disclosure or if the Chair has reason to believe the candidate is ineligible under applicable local, state or federal law.
- E. All properly filed candidates to the State Nominating Convention or a Special Convention shall be given access to at no cost and at the same time, the electronic contact information of the state delegates within the boundaries of the district to which they seek to be elected or statewide, if a statewide candidate. Such information shall include the name, address, phone number, email address, precinct number, Utah House district, Utah Senate district, Congressional district, and basis of eligibility for each delegate. Access to this information shall terminate if and when the candidate is eliminated or withdraws from the race.

10.0 DELEGATES AND PRECINCT CAUCUS MEETINGS

- A. Qualifications and Disqualifications of State and County Delegates. Each individual caucus shall be open to the public. Each participant shall be:
1. A Utah citizen who resides in the precinct and;
 2. Eighteen (18) years old by that year's general election and;
 3. A registered Republican party member as referenced in Article I of the Party Constitution or who registers as Republican at the individual Precinct Caucus meeting.
 4. Each participant shall not be a simultaneous officer, delegate, candidate or registered affiliated voter of any other rival political party. For purposes of this Bylaw, "rival political party" means any organization of registered voters currently qualified to fully participate in Utah elections as provided by Utah Code, which is not the Republican Party.
 5. Notwithstanding subsection 3, any individual who was registered with a rival political party, or who was not verifiably registered as a Republican in the official state voter registration database, as of the end of the earliest declaration of candidacy filing period for offices appearing on that year's primary or general election ballot, shall not be eligible to run for or be elected as a precinct officer or delegate or to be a replacement until after the first state party convention since registering Republican. Such individuals may attend the caucus, vote in caucus elections, and participate in discussions and other activities. This restriction does not apply to individuals who were unregistered to vote in Utah or registered as unaffiliated before changing their affiliation to Republican.

6. Precinct chairs or designated officers shall verify voter registration and affiliation history using official state voter records or party-provided tools prior to allowing candidates to run for precinct officer or delegate positions. Any disputes regarding eligibility shall be resolved by the county party's designated credentials authority on the night of caucus.

B. Each Precinct Caucus meeting shall use the following agenda:

1. Welcome/Introductions
2. Prayer Pledge
3. Reading of the State or County Platform
4. Review of Rules, Procedures, Duties of Precinct and Delegate Positions
Nominations and Elections for:
 1. Precinct Chair
 2. Precinct Vice Chair
 3. Precinct Secretary and/or Treasurer
 4. State Delegate
 5. County Delegate
5. Other Business as directed by State and/or County Parties
6. Select Election Judges (if applicable)
7. Adjournment of the Meeting

2. The State Central Committee shall approve any additional Precinct Caucus Rules to be used in addition to those outlined in Bylaws Section 9.0 A and B, prior to each Precinct Caucus Meeting.
3. Voter registration materials shall be available at each Precinct Caucus meeting for those unaffiliated voters who wish to affiliate that night as Republicans.
4. The County Parties may change the order in which the precinct leadership and state and county delegate elections are held but may not otherwise amend the caucus agenda.

11.0 CONVENTION CREDENTIAL CHALLENGES

Challenges pertaining to state delegate credentials or eligibility must be received in writing at State Party Headquarters no later than 5 p.m. three days prior to the State Convention. The Credentials Committee report shall be the first order of business at the convention. Nothing in this provision shall prohibit any delegate from moving an amendment to the credentials report at the convention.

12.0 ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern all meetings of the Party, except to the extent they are inconsistent with the Constitution and Bylaws and any special rules of order the Party may adopt.

13.0 INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

- A. The Utah Republican Party is committed to complying with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) to ensure any officer, delegate, caucus attendee or member of the public that is disabled is provided with full and equal access and enjoyment in caucus, conventions and other meetings. When provided sufficient advance notice, the Utah Republican Party will provide reasonable accommodations necessary to ensure equal opportunities for participation.

SPECIAL RULES

1. ELECTIONS CONDUCTED BY STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

In any elections conducted by the State Central Committee in which more candidates file than the positions being filled, the Committee shall use multiple ballots. A majority of votes is necessary to elect. The candidate with the fewest votes shall be eliminated in each round and more than one candidate shall be eliminated when the sum of the votes received by the candidates to be eliminated does not exceed the number of votes received by the next highest candidate, and at least enough candidates remain to fill the position(s).

2. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETINGS SCHEDULE.

Regularly scheduled monthly SEC meetings (except in a month where a SCC meeting will be held prior to the date of the monthly SEC meeting date) will be held to receive advice and allow the SEC to conduct binding business.

Adopted January 27, 2018

3. STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

- A. Meeting Scheduling. The venue selected to conduct State Central Committee meetings shall be reserved for no fewer than 8 hours following the time a meeting is scheduled to be called to order.
- B. Meeting Speaking Accommodations. Two fixed mic stands shall be made available during State Central Committee Meetings. Roving mics shall not be used except to accommodate those with disabilities.
- C. Meeting Audio and Video. High quality audio and video recordings shall be made by the Party of all State Central Committee Meetings. Any attendee of a State Central Committee Meeting may make their own audio and video recordings. Only audio or video recordings by the Party Secretary shall be allowed during executive sessions.
- D. Meeting Transcriptions. Transcriptions of State Central Committee Meetings may be ordered by the Secretary.

Adopted August 18, 2018

- 4. The governing body of the UTGOP interpret the word “PROVIDE” as written in the UTGOP Constitution Article III.B.3. to mean “that unless the secretary has delegated such duties listed in Article III.B.3. to the staff, the secretary shall send out the “Save the Date” emails, Agendas, Official CALL documentation, and all notices to the SCC, EC, and Convention.”

Adopted August 18, 2018

5. The provisions for officer removal in the UTGOP Constitution Article III are interpreted to apply to the class of “removal at the pleasure of the assembly.” It is understood that officers can also be removed “for cause” by following the process described in Robert’s Rules, as provided for in UTGOP Constitution Article XIII.

Adopted March 16, 2019

STANDING RULES

A standing rule is an administrative (housekeeping) rule that cannot conflict with the constitution, bylaws, or any adopted special rules.

1. The Chair is authorized to negotiate and secure venues for state conventions up to four years in advance.

Adopted May 18, 2024

2. The Party Secretary may amend any approved bylaw, Constitution or Platform amendment for spelling, capitalization, numbering, cross-references, and formatting. The Secretary shall not change the meaning of the amendment with his or her corrections. Such corrections must be ratified by the Executive Committee at the next Executive Committee meeting before taking effect.

Adopted November 15, 2025
