

MAKING CHANGE

The issues we've identified are best confronted together, in union. Some changes we can make at a workplace or community level. Others we'll need to change in parliament or in the media.

That's why we're Organising for Equality. Women like you have had these "WRAW chats" all over Australia and we're ready to take action.

Sign up below to get involved. It will take all of us to make the change we all need.
