DONATION FAQS - 2026

Here are some general FAQs in relation to donations made to JESSIE PRICE, an independent candidate in the upcoming federal election.

1. Who can donate to this campaign?

1.1 Any Australian citizen, resident or company (including a foreign company that has its head office or conducts its principal activities in Australia). We must not receive amounts of $100 or more from any foreign donors.

1.2 JESSIE PRICE chooses not to receive donations from harmful sources (alcohol, tobacco, fossil fuels, gambling, weapons, extremists).

1.3 There are no other prohibited donors under Commonwealth electoral laws, unlike state laws.

2. Can multiple family members make a donation to JESSIE PRICE?

2.1 Yes. Each person who makes a donation will be treated as an individual donor (even if part of a family).

3. Are there any age limits on who may donate?

3.1 No, there are not.

4. Can the directors/shareholders of a company donate to JESSIE PRICE even if the company has also made a donation?

4.1 Yes. Each of the directors, shareholders and the company will be treated as individual donors.

5. Can more than one company in a group donate to JESSIE PRICE?

5.1 Yes, although related companies (ie. holding companies or subsidiaries) will be treated as the same individual donor for the purposes of FAQ 6 below.

6. How much can be donated by an individual donor to JESSIE PRICE?

6.1 There are currentluy no caps on political donations under Commonwealth electoral laws. If the one donor makes a donation or multiple donations to JESSIE PRICE which total more than $17,300 in 2026 then the name of that donor will be disclosable by JESSIE PRICE in any donation disclosure returns to the AEC.

6.2 Any donor who donates more than $17,300 in 2026 will need to lodge a donor disclosure following the election. We will notify you about that when the time comes. The form is simple but we can help as needed.

7. How will the donation be used?

7.1 Donations will be used by at the discretion of the campaign, in order to run the best possible campaign.

8. Are donations tax deductible?

8.1 Donations made now are not tax deductible, sorry. If you donated during the 2025 election campaign, between 11 April 2025 and 3 June 2025, you can claim a tax deduction of up to $1,500 in that financial year.