SUPERVISOR JANICE HAHN ENDORSES LENA GONZALEZ FOR STATE SENATE

LONG BEACH, CA - Lena Gonzalez announced today that she has received the endorsement of Los Angeles County Supervisor Janice Hahn in her campaign to represent the 33rd State Senatorial District.

"I'm endorsing Lena Gonzalez because she is the most qualified candidate for State Senate," said Hahn. "Lena is already a very successful legislator writing groundbreaking legislation that has moved Long Beach forward. Lena comes from local government and understands the impacts state laws have on our local municipalities, which is needed now more than ever. I look forward to doing everything I can to ensure Lena is elected."

Hahn was elected to the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors in November of 2016 and currently serves as Chair of the Board. Before being elected to the Board of Supervisors, Hahn served for ten years on the Los Angeles City Council and for five and a half years as a member of Congress.

"I am thankful to Supervisor Hahn for her endorsement of our campaign," said Gonzalez. "In her short term on the Board, Janice has already established herself as a leader in the struggle to end the current homelessness crisis, a champion for communities plagued by pollution and health problems, and a dynamic new voice on the Metro Board of Directors. Her values are my values and I look forward to partnering with her on behalf of the communities of the 33rd State Senatorial District."

Hahn joins Long Beach Mayor Robert Garcia, Insurance Commissioner-Elect and the current Senator of the District, Ricardo Lara and Long Beach Councilmember Rex Richardson in endorsing Gonzalez.
