

My comment is. Students will suffer if a librarian has to spread their time over several schools. The students don't get as many opportunities to read, because their library hours will be lessened. Statistics show schools with librarians have better reading scores. We need to keep the student/librarian ratio the same. Look at paying teachers more, appreciating us, and better as well as cheaper insurance.

From: Angela Giono, Townsend MT 4/25/22