If YOU are a high school student who is interested in...

Gaining a global perspective about local issues*

Developing leadership & teamwork skills*

Building intercultural connections*

Exploring strategies for taking action*

THEN THIS IS THE PROGRAM FOR YOU!

Young Leaders in Action brings together diverse groups of high school students from the Salem & Portland metro areas to gain a global perspective on local justice issues, develop new leadership skills, and learn creative strategies to take action on issues their communities face.

WORKSHOPS on global issues with local relevance that are shaping our world such as climate refugees, racial justice, and houselessness

LEADERSHIP skills trainings on the essential ingredients of effective leaders, project planning, teamwork, conflict resolution, public speaking, and more

INTERCULTURAL activities with community leaders and youth activists from Oregon and around the world

NETWORKING with inspiring local and global leaders including youth, grassroots community leaders, politicians, educators, international peace fellows, and non-governmental organizations

STRATEGIES for taking action by exploring past, present, local, and global examples of leadership and activism, with an emphasis on youth leaders
