Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct door-to-door outreach and flyering in assigned buildings or zones
  - Promote and support multilingual legal education workshops in the community
  - Engage with youth, seniors, newcomers, and equity-deserving tenants
  - Assist with the development and distribution of tenant rights resources
  - Attend team check-ins and trainings as scheduled by the Project Coordinator
- Provide feedback on community needs and support program evaluation

Required Competencies:

- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Experience with community outreach, tenant advocacy, or grassroots organizing
- Familiarity with Regent Park and/or other high-density housing communities

- Respectful, inclusive, and comfortable working with diverse populations
  - Ability to work independently and as part of a team

Assets:

- Multilingual (e.g., Arabic, Somali, Mandarin, Swahili, or other community languages)
  - Lived experience as a tenant in social or community housing
  - Knowledge of tenant rights, anti-oppression, and community safety practices
