Plateau to Percy Bike Tour

Dunlap, TN to Nashville, TN

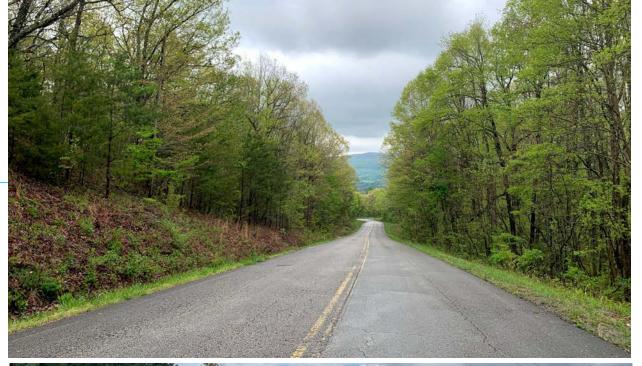

Ride Details

When? September 21-24, 2022

Where? Dunlap, TN to Nashville, TN

Why? A fundraiser for Walk Bike Nashville Programing, in particular the Families for Safe Streets program

Families for Safe Streets

FSS is an advocacy and support group for those that have:

- been in a crash as a pedestrian or bicyclists
- lost a loved one that was walking or biking in Nashville

This groups is designed to offer support for victims and families, as well as equip members to use their voices to change the culture of road safety in our city.

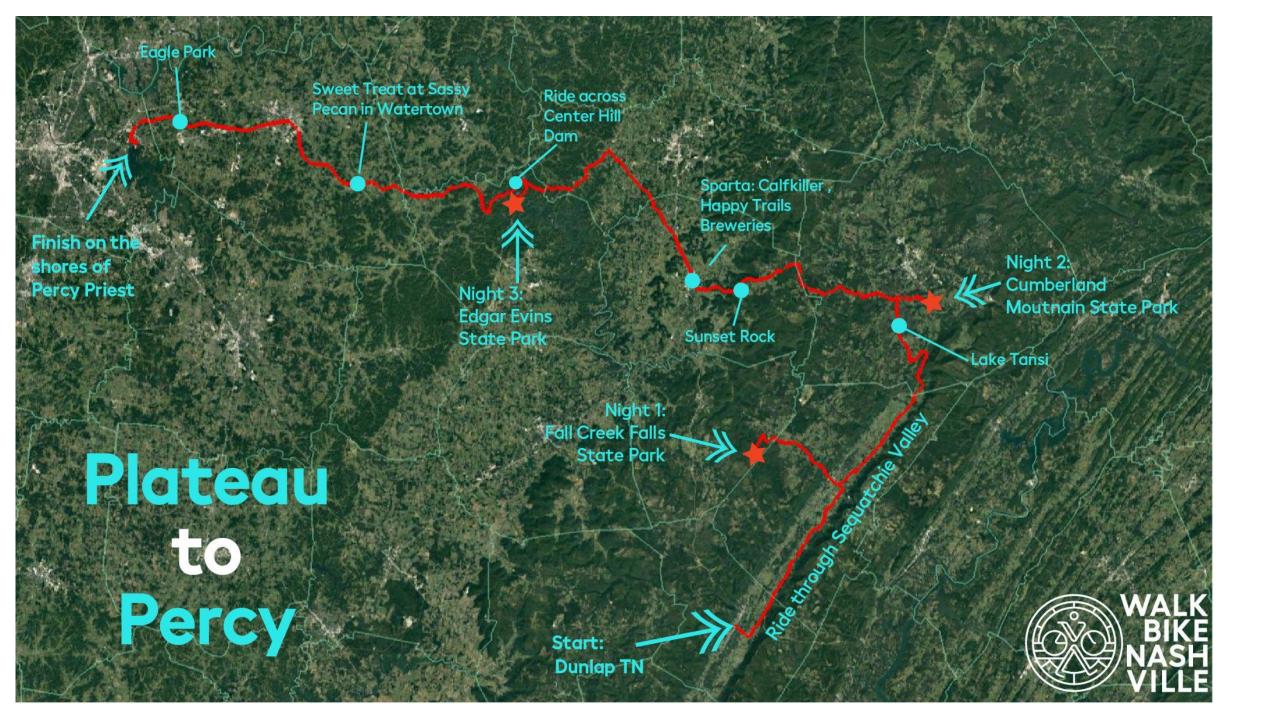

Cost to Participate

$1,500 for a cabin room, shared with another person

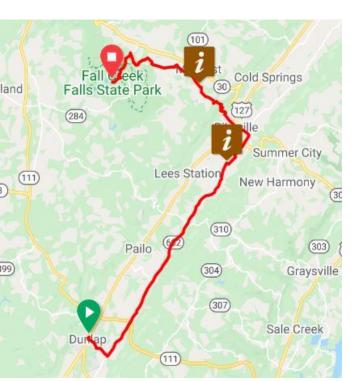

General Highlights

Day 1: 40.8 miles; Dunlap TN to Fall Creek Falls State Park

- Enjoy a picnic lunch in Pikeville, TN
- Ride through the Sequatchie Valley, some of Tennessee's most scenic bicycle routes
- Experience the rolling hills and vast landscapes of the valley
- Reach the plateau just before you enter Fall Creek Falls, your destination for the evening
- Enjoy dinner by the campfire and s'mores for dessert

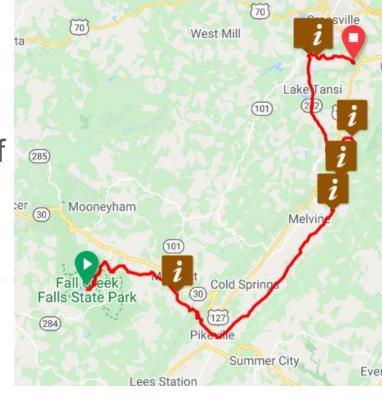

Day 2: 51.9 miles; Fall Creek Falls to Cumberland Mountain State Park

 Explore Pikeville's Historic Main St and get coffee or ice cream at Ember's Ice Cream Shoppe

Ride past Lake Tansi, a resort community on the lake

Have time to explore
 Cumberland Mountain
 State Park, where you'll stay that night

Cumberland Mountain state park is also part of the Cumberland Mountain plateau, the longest timbered plateau in the the US

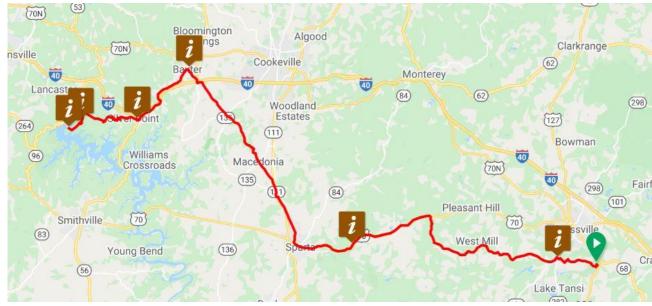

Pleasant Hill

Day 3: 71.1 miles; Cumberland Mountain State Park to Edgar Evins State Park

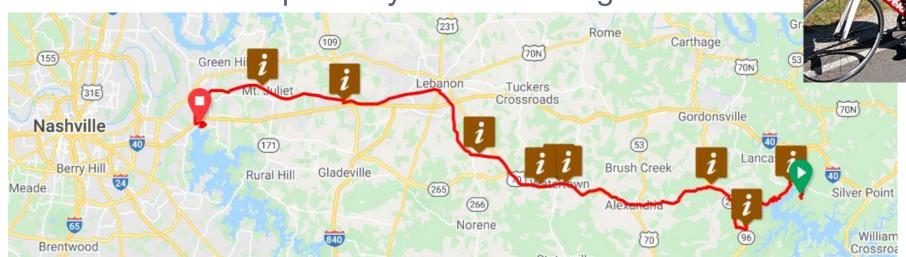

- Sunset Rock scenic overlook
- Explore small TN towns such as Sparta and Baxter
- Stop by the Calfkiller Brewery or the Happy Trails Brewery and Taproom in Sparta
- Whistle Stop Cafe in Baxter for ice cream or beer
- Stay in Edgar Evins State Park
- Grab a snack, drink or dessert at the Marina Restaurant
- Take a dip in the Center Hill Lake

Day 4: 60.2 miles; Edgar Evins State Park to Percy Priest Lake

- Ride over the Center Hill Dam
- Enjoy a coffee or sweet treat in Watertown
- Explore Eagle Park in Mt. Juliet
- Enjoy a celebration party at the end of the ride at Percy Priest Lake
- Hear from Families for Safe Streets members about the impact of your fundraising efforts

What's included with my fundraising amount?

- Sleeping accommodations
- Ride arrangements to get you, your luggage and bike to the start location
- 10 prepared meals over the 4-day ride
- Snacks, water and gatorade for each ride day

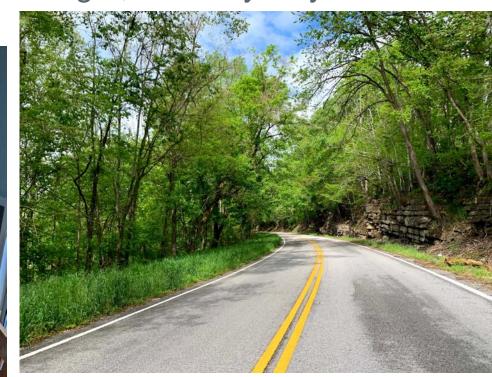

Van and bike guide support for each ride day (that's right, we carry all your stuff to each new ride destination!)

Event bike jersey

Accomodations

We'll be staying in cabins at Fall Creek Falls, Cumberland Mountain and Edgar

Evins State Parks

We'll prepare all dinner meals at the cabins

- Cabins range from 1 3 bedrooms, depending on which park and include:
 - Most have double beds
 - Indoor restrooms (1 2, depending on which park)
 - Heating and cooling
 - All linens provided
 - Kitchen supplies and utensils

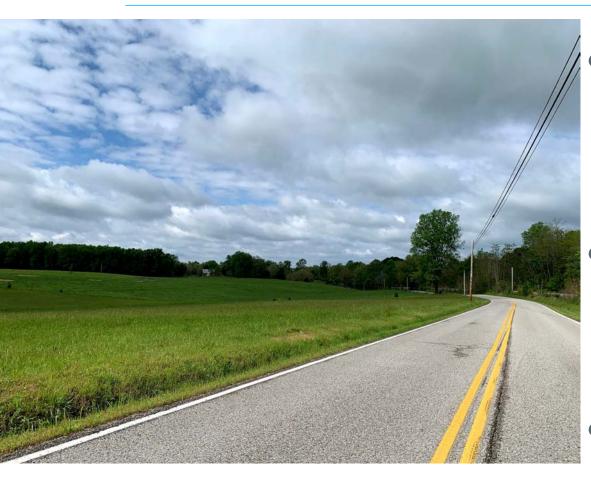

Getting to Dunlap, TN

Walk Bike Nashville will provide van transportation for you, your bike and your luggage to Dunlap. We will meet at Percy Priest on Day 1.

If you do not want to ride in the provided vans, you have the option to transport yourself, your luggage and your bike to Dunlap, TN. If you take your personal car, you will be responsible for getting your car back to Nashville from Dunlap after the bike tour is completed.

Additional Questions?

Check out our website for more information:
https://www.walkbikenashville.org/plateau_to_percy

Email Aaron Wimsatt at aaron@walkbikenashville.org

We can't wait to bike tour with you!