

Sharyl McFarland for Secretary of State

Sharyl McFarland has fought for over 20 years to give marginalized people a voice. Now she is running for office to build a government that is truly by the people, of the people, and for the people. She believes in the importance of listening because “the people who are closest to the problems are closest to the solutions. They need leaders who will be that voice.”

- Committed to running an independent campaign without corporate money.
- A champion for voter engagement, voter education, and unlocking the vote.
- Committed to radical inclusion: envisions a Wisconsin that works for all of the people who live here regardless of color, class, or other factors.
- A strong advocate for better public transportation and healthcare.
- Dedicated to conservation and sustainability.