For Immediate Release: December 2, 2022

NWSA is accepting applications for Executive Director.

The National Wilderness Stewardship Alliance (NWSA) is seeking an Executive Director (ED) to help lead NWSA into the future. As our first permanent staff member, the new ED will have the opportunity to expand NWSA membership and influence in the wilderness stewardship community, assist and mentor new wilderness stewardship organizations and continue to administer and expand funding for wilderness trails maintenance and wilderness stewardship performance activities.

The mission of NWSA is to develop a growing network of volunteer-based organizations to provide stewardship for America's enduring resource of wilderness. The NWSA vision is to see each wilderness area within the National Wilderness Preservation System adopted by a wilderness stewardship organization dedicated to protecting and nurturing the area's character and values. We envision effective partnerships between community-based, non-profit wilderness stewardship organizations and all government agencies charged with the management of our national wilderness areas.

Diverse candidates and candidates with non-traditional backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The full job description and how to apply can be downloaded here. Position will be open until filled, application review will begin January 9, 2023. Please submit your application and supporting documents to nwsajob@wildernessalliance.org.
