Nueces County Republican Party Endorses Non-Partisan Candidates

Corpus Christi, Nueces County, Texas —

On September 10th, the Nueces County Republican Party held its monthly Executive Committee Meeting where, for the first time, it endorsed conservative candidates running in 2024 non-partisan elections. Despite these positions being nominally non-partisan, the races have still often been dominated by partisan values due to slanted leftist groups throwing their full support behind their desired candidates.

Due to the importance of the upcoming November 2024 election, Nueces County Republicans have chosen for the first time to stand up and back those candidates that support true conservative values and officially endorse them. The threshold to earn endorsement required 75% of the body to vote in support. This high threshold ensures that those candidates endorsed truly support the proper vision for Corpus Christi and Nueces County.

Therefore, the Nueces County Republican Party is proud to endorse the following candidates:

Michael Hunter, Corpus Christi Mayor
Carolyn Vaughn, City Council At-Large
Larry Elizondo, City Council At-Large
Jahvid Motaghi, City Council At-Large
Albert Carrillo III, City Council District 3
Kaylynn Paxson, City Council District 4
Gil Hernandez, City Council District 5
Michael Bergsma, CC-ISD School Board At-Large
Samuel Aundrá Fryer, CC-ISD School Board At-Large
Jerry Hooper, Flour Bluff ISD School Board, Place 1
Jennifer Welp, Flour Bluff ISD School Board, Place 6
Brian Boone, Tuloso-Midway ISD School Board, Place 1
