LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

Winchester City Museum, The Square – 10am-5pm – FREE entry all day on Saturday 19 February for children and their families! This museum is in the heart of the city and tells the story of England's ancient capital, the seat of Alfred the Great. The model of 1870 Winchester is a hit with children and adults alike.

Westgate Museum, Upper High Street – 10am-4pm – FREE entry all day on Saturday 19 February for children and their families!

Winchester City Mill, Bridge Street – 11am-4pm – FREE entry – plus milling demonstrations, interactive activity stations and '50 things to do before you're 11½' activities designed for ages 5-12.

The Royal Green Jackets (Rifles) Museum, Peninsula Barracks – 10am-4pm – FREE entry for children under 16 – PLUS half-price entry for all adults in the family. This has been described as an "under-appreciated gem", with its diorama of the Battle of Waterloo a particular highlight.

The Rifles Museum, Peninsula Barracks – 10am-4pm – FREE entry for children and the rest of the family. This museum focuses on the largest regiment in the Army and offers dressing up and other activities for youngsters.

The Adjutant General's Corps Museum, Peninsula Barracks – 10am-4pm – FREE entry for children and the rest of the family, plus a museum trail for youngsters.

COWs EAT FREE

Frieda's Tearoom, 6a Parchment Street – In-store 10am-5pm – FREE cakes for kids, when parents/carers eat or drink at Frieda's.

COWFEST COMPETITIONS

Ballet Pointe, The Brooks Shopping Centre – Inspired by Dance competition – In-store 10am-5pm

Do you love to dance? Express yourself through a dance or ballet inspired poem or picture, for a chance to waltz away with some prizes! Get writing or drawing, and drop your creation into Ballet Pointe at their new location on the lower shopping level of the Brooks centre. Prizes will be awarded during half-term week.

Three Joes, 9 Great Minster Street – colouring competition – In-store 11am-11pm

Pop into Three Joes to take part in their special COWfest colouring competition, which is FREE to enter (no need to dine – you can collect a colouring sheet from Three Joes, but it must be returned to the restaurant by close on 20 February). Draw on 21 February. The winner will be invited back to the restaurant during half-term to hone their pizza-making skills with the Chef! They will, of course, be able to eat their pizza creation – and their parent/carer will get free pizza and a drink, too. For ages up to 8

Bellacrafts, Kings Walk – Eat like a Queen competition – In-store 10am-3pm

Children aged 2-12 years can have fun getting creative in this completely FREE craft activity and competition. Simply turn up, take a seat and enjoy using Bellacrafts' paints, sequins, sparkles, stickers and your own imagination to create a crown inspired by Queen Elizabeth, our longest reigning Monarch. Have your royal portrait captured, before being entered into a competition for a Royal Lunch for 4 – including an Afternoon Tea for adults and one of Bellacrafts' themed Yummy Treat Plates for the children.

Lark kids, 6 St Thomas Street – Design a Boot competition – In-store 10am-5.30pm

Design your own 'Zig + Star' boot, for a chance to win great prizes! Open to all ages 0-18. Be as creative as you like! You can use paints, crayons, pencils, fabrics ... any materials you wish.
