

HISTORY

Founded in 1907, the Hampton Academy Alumni Association initially served to reconnect high school alumni and foster lasting interest in the school. After Winnacunnet High School opened in 1958, the name changed to Hampton Academy & Winnacunnet High School Alumni Association to be inclusive of both high schools. Today, the Association strives to strengthen alumni support through reunions, scholarships, grants, career programs, and other events.

UNITING ALUMNI

STRENGTHENING
ENGAGEMENT & IMPACT

OUR MISSION

To create an organization that helps graduates work together for the common good.

WHAT WE DO

We strive to take an everlasting interest in the school, and strengthen alumni support in a number of ways:

PLAN REUNIONS

We help classes plan reunions by offering access to class lists, necrology, and alumni contact details. We also coordinate tours of the high school.

AWARD SCHOLARSHIPS

We have awarded over 75 scholarships worth a total of $155,000 since 1960.

FUND SPECIAL PROJECTS

We support capital improvement projects, like our recent addition of a pavilion outside the cafeteria:

HOST ANNUAL LUNCHEON

Our June annual luncheon is open to all Hampton Academy High School and Winnacunnet alumni.

PUBLISH ANNUAL NEWSLETTER

The newsletter highlights scholarship recipients, alumni events, new trustees, community involvement, and necrology.

SELL ALUMNI GEAR

Branded merchandise helps to enhance alumni pride and foster community.

BUILD AWARENESS

We're active at home football games, parent/teacher conferences, and other community events.

WHY JOIN US

Membership offers the rewarding opportunity to:

- Renew old acquaintances
- Give back to the community
- Help current students with career development
- Honor alumni who have served
