

Dear Julia,

Ever wondered who benefits from development on the West Side? Or how you can make your voice heard in planning for a fair future for all in our neighborhood?

Join us at Our Side: an open house for equitable development! We'll have opportunities to learn about the West Side Equitable Development Scorecard, and a special interview with Kareem Smith, a West Sider with years of experience evaluating developments for affordability, accessibility, environmental impact, and more.

Free! Childcare and refreshments provided. Interpretation available upon request.

All are welcome. Black, Indigenous, people of color, people living with a disability, and youth especially encouraged to attend.

When: Thursday, June 8th, 6:00PM- 8:00PM

Where: WSCO, 209 Page St. W.

West Side Tenant Union Meeting

A group of West Side renters have taken the historic step of forming the first tenant union here on the West Side! If you are a West Side renter, we need you to join us! We collectively build power in our community of renters by sharing resources, amplifying renter voices, and organizing for housing justice on the West Side! This includes:

- Building power with renters on the West Side to address issues in their buildings
- Renter rights and resources education
- Systems change work

When: May 24th, 6:00PM - 7:30PM (and the 4th Wednesday of every month)

Where: WSCO's offices, 209 Page St. W., St. Paul
