

Hospitality University Award for Excellence in Tourism Entrepreneurship

The Hospitality University Awards Committee is seeking nominations for the Excellence in Tourism Entrepreneurship Award which recognizes a small tourism business owner who demonstrates creativity and/or financial success with a small tourism business.

The nomination should include a small tourism business owner who demonstrates creativity and/or financial success with a small tourism business. Both new and established business owners qualify. Small business is defined as having 25 employees or less. Nominees must be affiliated with a West Virginia tourism business, organization, or educational institution with a tourism track.

The awards will be bestowed at the Hospitality University Conference at The Greenbrier on February 27, 2024, during the closing luncheon. (Additional information and pages may be attached)
