13.04 The Employer will develop a job description for each position in accordance with Article 15.

13.05 A monthly shift schedule will assign work to employees in a fair and equitable way. Casual employees shall be assigned approximately the same amount of work on the shift schedule based on their availability, which shall be provided in writing to the Employer by the twelfth (12th) day of the month preceding each shift schedule. Employees who do not provide for their availability are obligated to work shifts assigned to them on the schedule.

13.06 Staff meetings, other than emergency meetings, shall be noted on the shift schedule.

13.07 A copy of the shift schedule shall be made available to each employee at least ten (10) days prior to the end of the month.

13.11 If an employee wishes to exchange more than two (2) consecutive shifts, the Employer's permission must be obtained. This permission will not be unreasonably withheld.

13.12 Two permanent employees may share a permanent full-time or permanent part-time position, subject to the following conditions:

- c) An employee in a job share position shall be considered permanent part-time for purposes of this agreement.
- d) Two employees sharing a position will submit their monthly schedule to management on or before the twelfth (12th) day of the preceding month. If a job share employee is interested in working additional casual shifts, the employee will indicate which shifts are scheduled as part of the job share arrangement and which shifts are available for casual work.
- e) Job share employees may divide their shifts in a manner satisfactory to both employees, providing all required shifts are covered in a way that does not accrue overtime.
- f) When a job share employee other than a Transition Home Worker is on leave, shifts will be filled whenever possible by the job share partner. If the job share partner is unable or unwilling to accept these shifts, they may be filled through the casual pool in accordance with regular procedure.
- g) If the job share employees cannot reach an agreed upon shift schedule for the upcoming month, they will both agree to be available for all shifts of that position and the Employer will allocate the shifts in an equitable manner.
- h) In the event that the relationship between the job share employees deteriorates, the employees may access the employee assistance program (EAP) or the grievance procedure described in this agreement.
- i) When an employee resigns or is terminated from a job-shared position, their hours will first be offered to the job share partner.
- j) Upon resignation or termination of an employee in a job share arrangement, the position reverts to its original permanent full-time or permanent part-time status and the letter of agreement under Clause 13.12 b) is discontinued and is only renewable subject to the terms of this Article. that recognizes the needs of the remaining job share partner. If the position still remains vacant the job share employee will be placed on the casual roster.

 - b) in the case of a permanent part-time employee or part-time term employee, hours of work in excess of the normal hours per day or per week worked by the employee unless employee requested in which case not to exceed eight (8) hours in a given twenty-four (24) hour period or forty (40) hours in the employee's normal work week; and

- c) in the case of a casual employee, hours of work in excess of eight (8) hours in a given twenty-four (24) hour period, or forty (40) hours in a given week.
- 16.02 The Employer recognizes that overtime is sometimes desired, and sometimes unwelcome. Subject to operational requirements, the Employer shall give the choice to take or refuse overtime work to employees on the basis of their seniority. If operational requirements necessitate a certain employee working overtime, the employee may only refuse the shift for reasonable cause.
- 16.03 Overtime hours worked shall be counted for seniority purposes, except that no employee shall be credited with more than forty (40) hours for seniority purposes in any given week.
- 16.04 Employees shall be compensated for overtime work at one and a half times their normal hourly rate.
- 16.05 Instead of overtime pay, full time, part time, and term employees may take compensatory leave at a rate equivalent to the rate of pay for overtime worked, provided the employee notifies the Employer of their preference for compensatory leave prior to the end of the current pay period. Casuals will be paid out all overtime worked on each pay period.
- 16.06 Compensatory leave may accumulate to a maximum of ten (10) working days, and may be taken at a time convenient to the employee, subject to operational requirements. Such requests for time off will not be unreasonably denied. At the end of the fiscal year, the employee may liquidate their compensatory leave or carry it over to the next fiscal year at the employee's option.
- 16.07 Overtime worked, if less than a full hour, shall be compensated for each completed fifteen (15) minute period worked.
- 16.08 Overtime shall be authorized in advance by the Employer. Where operational requirements make this impractical, overtime may be authorized retroactively by the Employer.
- 16.09 Where an employee makes or receives a call with the authorization of the Employer and can accomplish the work by telephone without returning to the workplace, the employee shall be compensated at the applicable rate rounded up to the nearest fifteen (15) minute period.
- 16.10 Any bargaining unit employee, who is called in and required to be at work for other than a scheduled shift, will receive the applicable pay for a minimum of two (2) hours.
- 16.11 Casuals filling a term position will accrue leave as defined in this Agreement. At the completion of the term, casuals will be paid out all compensatory leave credits.

The Employer agrees to inform new employees of the provisions of this clause.
- 24.06 The above Code of Ethics is subject to review by the Labour-Management Relations Committee every two years, following which this committee may make recommendations for amendments to the Code of Ethics.

- 25.01 A new employee, not including an employee promoted or transferred to another position under Article 28, shall serve a probationary period of 480 hours or six (6) months, whichever occurs first.
- 25.02 Unless otherwise expressly stated, a probationary employee is entitled to all the rights and benefits of this agreement, including access to the grievance procedure.
- 25.03 The purpose of the probationary period is to allow the Employer to assess whether the employee is able to meet the standards reasonably required by the Employer. In assessing this, the Employer will give the employee a fair chance to prove their ability and will make reasonable accommodation and provide reasonable assistance to the employee to do so.
- 25.04 Where a probationary employee is unable, or unlikely to be able, to meet the standards reasonably required by the Employer, the employee may be terminated with two days written notice, or pay in lieu of notice, together with written reasons for the termination.
- 25.05 After the successful completion of the probationary period, the employee shall be so informed in writing.
- 25.06 Seniority shall not accrue during the probationary period, but upon successful completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective retroactive to the date of hire.
- 25.07 The probationary period may be extended for an additional period of up to a maximum of four (4) months or 320 hours, whichever comes first with reasons provided in writing by the Employer. The employee may request Union involvement.

- a) 125 hours of seniority credits for employees who work less than 750 hours;
 - b) 250 hours of seniority credits for employees who work a minimum of 750 hours, to a maximum of 2080 hours,
- on their anniversary date for the previous year in which they have continuous service for the full year. This is meant to reflect the value of the employee's length of service with the Employer more adequately.
- 26.04 Seniority terminates when an employee is dismissed and not reinstated, or when the employee resigns.
- 26.05 An employee is deemed to resign if:
- a) the employee fails to report to work or fails to return to work after a leave, and five scheduled shifts have passed and the employee has not contacted the Employer; or
 - b) the Employer will not grant permission for an extension of the leave, which permission will be given if it is fair and reasonable to do so.
- 26.06 Although an employee loses their seniority when the employee resigns, the Employer will credit the employee with one-half of any previously accrued seniority if the employee resumes employment within two years following their resignation. This is meant to attach some value to the employee's experience with the Employer.
- 26.07 A seniority list of employees, for the purposes of this agreement, shall include all employees in the bargaining unit as of January 17, 1990 and employees hired since that date, whose seniority status remains in effect in accordance with Clauses 26.04 to 26.06 above.  - 2) to identify organizational barriers to performance;
 - 3) to provide meaningful feedback regarding their job performance; and
 - 4) to coach for improved performance by clarifying expectations.
- 27.03 The Employer will provide an opportunity for the employee to attach comments regarding their personal evaluation of the employee's performance to the evaluation.
- 27.04 An employee may request a job performance evaluation at any time during their employment.
- 27.05 The employee performance evaluation shall also allow the employee to state their career development goals.
- 27.06 The Employer will discuss the draft results of the performance evaluation with the employee before finalizing it. In doing so, the Employer will point out the employee's strengths and weaknesses in each area.
- 27.07 A final copy of the employee's performance evaluation shall be placed on the employee's personnel file, signed and dated by the employee indicating that the employee has had the opportunity to review and discuss it. An employee who disagrees with their performance evaluation may append an explanation to it for inclusion on the employee's personnel file.
- 27.08 The Employer will provide a copy of the performance evaluation to the employee upon request.
- 27.09 The parties agree to jointly develop changes to the job performance evaluation process through the Labour-Management Relations Committee, including amendments to the evaluation forms.

ARTICLE 28 – Promotions and Transfers

- 28.01 Where the Employer wishes to create and fill a new permanent or term position, or to fill a vacancy in an existing position, the Employer agrees to hire from within the bargaining unit where possible, and will post a notice of the position in the Employer's business office and on the bulletin board provided in Article 9 for at least one (1) week, which may be concurrent with an anticipatory public posting or advertisement.
- 28.02 Where the Employer wishes to fill a vacant permanent position which is excluded from the bargaining unit, the Employer will post, for the information of the employees in the bargaining unit, a notice of the position in the Employer's business office and on the bulletin board provided in Article 9 for at least one (1) week, which may be concurrent with an anticipatory public posting or advertisement.
- 28.03 The notice shall specify the nature of the position, the minimum qualifications, the desired qualifications, the hours of work (including any shift work required), conditions of employment, and the pay rate or range.
- 28.04 The Employer agrees to fill positions from within the bargaining unit unless:
- 1) the position is an affirmative action position in accordance with Article 11.06 and no members of the bargaining unit are eligible; or
 - 2) no members of the bargaining unit apply; or
 - 3) none of the applicants are qualified, and no reasonable efforts on the part of the Employer would likely result in an applicant becoming qualified in a reasonable time.
- 28.05 Subject to any employment equity program established in accordance with Article 11, the Employer will fill positions with the most qualified candidate.
- 28.06 In assessing each applicant's qualifications, the Employer will take into account the following factors, the relative weight of which will be determined by the Employer and applied equally to each applicant:
- a) the minimum requirements for the position
 - b) knowledge (whether attained through formal education, life experience or self-instruction)
 - c) skills
 - d) abilities related to performing the position, and
 - e) seniority.
- 28.07 If two or more applicants are relatively equal based upon the factors above, seniority shall be the governing factor. Where two (2) or more employees apply, each employee is entitled to an individual interview and a 'post board' interview with the Employer if requested by the unsuccessful applicant(s).

- 28.08 Where no applicant is qualified for the position, the Employer may promote or transfer an applicant who does not meet the requirements, but who may reasonably be expected to obtain the necessary qualifications prior to assuming the position, or within a reasonable time thereafter.
- 28.09 Within seven calendar days of an appointment under this Article, the Employer will send the name of the successful candidate to each applicant and post it in the places mentioned in Clause 28.01.
- 28.10 A member of the bargaining unit who is appointed to a position under this Article shall serve a trial period of 240 hours (or, in the event of a term position, one tenth of the term) beginning the first day of work in their new position. Until the end of the trial period, the employee may request or the Employer may require that the employee return to the position the employee occupied prior to the appointment without loss of benefits or seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the initial appointment shall also be returned to their former position.
- 28.11 No member of the bargaining unit who accepts a term position will suffer any loss of pay, benefits or seniority as a result of taking the term position.
- 28.12 When offering contracts to undertake work that is not bargaining unit work, the Employer agrees to abide by the provisions of this Article, with the exception of Clause 28.11.

ARTICLE 29 – Acting Assignments

- 29.01 An acting assignment means the assignment of an employee to substantially perform the duties of a position as required on a temporary basis.
- 29.02 The Employer will try to fill vacancies as quickly as possible, so that acting assignments are kept to a minimum.
- 29.03 An employee who is acting in a position for one (1) or more shifts in a row shall receive the salary for that position if it is higher than their current salary. An employee who accepts an acting assignment for a person excluded from the bargaining unit shall be compensated at a premium equal to fifteen per cent (15%) the employee's base hourly rate.
- 29.04 An employee acting outside the bargaining unit who is fulfilling the acting assignment is entitled to all benefits of a bargaining unit member under this agreement, including overtime pay.
- 29.05 An employee who is acting in the position of the Employer is responsible for all the obligations of the Employer under this agreement.

- 29.06 For acting assignments in positions other than a Transition Home Worker, the Employer shall give other employees an equitable opportunity to act in the position if they wish. A roster of qualified available employees shall be established on a seniority basis, with each employee having the opportunity to act in the position for an equitable period.

- 30.04 The Employer will provide on-the-job training and related staff development opportunities in the form of seminars, courses and conferences. Notices of relevant training opportunities will be posted on the bulletin board.
- 30.05 To provide training opportunities, the Employer will allocate a reasonable sum of money in the budget each year to be used for staff training and development. The Employer will provide at the beginning of each fiscal year to Labour-Management Relations Committee the amount of funds available for staff training and development to assist them in recommending training/professional development applications.
- 30.06 Expenditures from this fund will be made on the recommendations of the Labour-Management Relations Committee. The Employer will regularly provide to the Labour-Management Relations Committee the number of applicants approved and cost of each training approved.
- 30.07 In making decisions concerning staff training and development, the Committee shall take into account the following factors:
- a) the current and future needs of the Employer's services
 - b) the benefits to clients specific employees.

- 30.09 Attendance at any training opportunity designated as essential shall be without cost to the employee, and without loss of pay or benefits.
- 30.10 Attendance at other training opportunities not designated as essential shall be on such terms as are determined by the Labour-Management Relations Committee.

During such leave of absence, no benefits under this agreement will accrue or be paid by the Yukon Women's Transition Home Society.
- 30.12 The Employer agrees to make all reasonable accommodation to encourage staff training and development.

ARTICLE 31 – Discipline

- 31.01 A disciplinary infraction is an act or conduct on the part of an employee which amounts to a breach of this agreement or a breach of the Employer's policies in the workplace.
- 31.02 Disciplinary action means action taken by the Employer to stop or deter a disciplinary infraction, including:
 - a) a written reprimand
 - b) a suspension with or without pay
 - c) a demotion, or
 - d) a dismissal.
- 31.03 The order of the above disciplinary actions is not necessarily sequential, nor do clauses (a) through (d) above reflect an increasing severity.
- 31.04 A verbal warning or suggestion for improvement does not constitute disciplinary action.
- 31.05 The Employer will take disciplinary action only where there is just cause, upon being satisfied on reasonable grounds that the employee has committed the disciplinary infraction.
- 31.06 Disciplinary action (except for dismissal) is intended to correct and deter further disciplinary infractions, not punish the employee. The Employer will use the least serious form of disciplinary action which will likely stop or deter further disciplinary infractions by the employee.
- 31.07 Before beginning an investigation into a disciplinary infraction, the Employer will inform the employee of the intention to conduct an investigation and the grounds for doing so, unless there is reasonable cause to withhold this information from the employee.

- 31.08 Where the Employer provides the information to the employee under Clause 31.07, the Employer shall also inform the employee of their rights under Clause 31.09.
- 31.09 Before any disciplinary action is taken against an employee, the Employer shall give the employee an opportunity, as soon as possible at a time and location convenient to the employee and Employer, to present their version of the facts to the Employer either alone or, if the employee wishes, with a Union representative present.
- 31.10 Where the Employer is contemplating suspension, demotion or dismissal for a disciplinary infraction, the Employer may suspend the employee for up to three regular shifts with pay while deciding what disciplinary action is appropriate.
- 31.11 If any disciplinary action is taken against an employee, the Employer will give the employee written notice of the specific disciplinary action taken, the reasons for it, the effective date it commences, and any financial implications for the employee.
- 31.12 All notices and/or correspondence related to discipline and placed in the employee's personnel file will also at the same time be sent to the Union office.
- 31.13 Only disciplinary action documented on the employee's personnel file in accordance with this Article may be introduced as evidence at any hearing relating to disciplinary action, such as a grievance arbitration.
- 31.14 No document, including any performance evaluation review, from the employee's personnel file may be introduced at a hearing related to disciplinary action if the employee was not aware of the document at the time of filing, or within a reasonable time thereafter.
- 31.15 For permanent full-time employees, the Employer will remove any notice of disciplinary action from the employee's personnel file once the employee has attained a twenty-four (24) month period without further disciplinary action having been taken. For all other employees, the waiting period shall be twenty-four (24) months, or 1800 hours worked, whichever is longer.
- 31.16 An employee shall have access to their personnel file upon request, in the presence of the Employer, and may have a copy of any document if the employee wishes.
- 31.17 If the employee consents in writing, the Union representative may have the same rights as the employee in Clause 31.16.
- 31.18 An employee who is found to have been unjustly suspended, demoted or dismissed shall receive all rights or benefits the employee would otherwise have been entitled to retroactive to the date of the wrongful suspension, demotion or dismissal.

ARTICLE 32 – Grievance Procedure

All references to days in this article are to be calculated as business days, excluding General Holidays referred to in Article 22.

- 32.01 The purpose of the grievance procedure is to resolve disputes that arise under this agreement in a fair and expeditious manner.
- 32.02 The Union may file a grievance on behalf of an employee ("the grievor"), or on its own behalf, alleging a violation of this agreement.
- 32.03 Where the Union chooses not to represent the grievor, and the grievance relates to disciplinary action taken against the employee (Article 31), discrimination against the employee (Article 11), harassment of the employee (Article 12) or a matter concerning an employee performance evaluation (Article 27), the employee may file the grievance on their own behalf. If so, all of the rights and obligations of the Union in Clauses 32.04 through 32.15 apply to the employee. The employee shall not have access to the Level 4 grievance procedure.
- 32.04 A grievance is filed when delivered in writing to the Employer. No particular form is necessary as long as the document indicates it is a grievance under this Article, or in some manner indicates it is a formal grievance.
- 32.05 The Executive Director is authorized to receive grievances on behalf of the Employer. The Executive Director shall provide a receipt to the person delivering the grievance stating the date it was received.
- 32.06 A grievance must be filed within twenty (20) days after the cause of the grievance arose or twenty (20) days from the date upon which the grievor became aware of the cause of the grievance.
- 32.07 Unless otherwise provided in this agreement, a grievance shall be settled with recourse to the following steps, if needed:
- Level 1 - Executive Director
 - Level 2 - Board of Directors
 - Level 3 - Mediation
 - Level 4 – Arbitration
- 32.08 When a grievance is filed, the Executive Director shall attempt to settle it at Level 1 unless:
- a) the employee requests that the grievance be waived to another level under Article 11 – No Discrimination or Article 12 – Workplace Harassment;

- b) the grievance concerns a wrongful suspension, demotion or dismissal under Article 31, in which case it will commence at Level 2; or
- c) the parties wish to waive the grievance to another level by mutual consent.

32.09 The Union may consult with the Employer concerning any grievance at any level of the grievance procedure.
