ARTICLE 4 – STATE SECURITY AND LEGISLATION

- 4.01 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to require the Employer to do or refrain from doing anything contrary to any instruction, direction or regulations given or made by or on behalf of the Government of Canada or of any act of the Yukon or any state in the interest of the safety or security of Canada, the Yukon or any state allied or associated with Canada.
- 4.02 In the event that any law passed by Parliament or by the Government of the Yukon applying to employees covered by this Agreement renders null and void any provisions of this Agreement, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. When this occurs, the parties agree, at the request of either side, to discuss the impact of such an annulment and what changes, if any, can be made to the agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - TERRITORIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT

5.01 The University will consult with Yukon First Nations on whose traditional territories its facilities sit, to determine the correct protocol and languages for Traditional Territorial acknowledgements and protocol to follow in developing, creating, and placing the acknowledgement in the Collective Agreement. The acknowledgement will be in the traditional language of the Nation, followed by English and will be placed in the preface of both the print and electronic version of the Collective Agreement.

JOB SECURITY AND LAYOFF

ARTICLE 6 – JOB SECURITY

- (a) During the life of this agreement, the Employer will make every reasonable effort to provide continued employment for full-time and part-time employees, excluding term employees. Should a re-organization occur, every reasonable effort will be made to provide alternate employment opportunities to the affected employees at equivalent levels within the same geographic region. The employer will provide retraining as an alternative to layoff when a vacancy exists, and the employee can demonstrate an aptitude to meet the new job requirements within a reasonable period of time.
- (b) The employer further agrees that during the life of this agreement full-time and part-time employees, excluding term employees, will not be laid off or have their hours reduced as a result of the Employer contracting out work.

ARTICLE 7 – NOTICE OF LAYOFF

7.01 When, at the direction of the Employer a position is eliminated or the hours of work reduced, the Employer will provide the affected employee(s) with notice of layoff. The employee shall be given six (6) months' notice in writing of the effective date of layoff or six (6) months' salary and benefits in lieu of such notice, except where the laid-off employee exercises their rights in accordance with Article 8 Layoff, Seniority and Recall. The option of providing six (6) months' notice or payment in lieu of such notice shall be decided by the Employer. With the mutual agreement of the employee and the Employer, a combination of notice and payment in lieu of such notice may be arranged.

ARTICLE 8 – LAYOFF, SENIORITY AND RECALL

8.01 For the purpose of this Article, layoff means the termination of an employee's employment as a consequence of insufficient enrollment, reductions or reorganization of workload, discontinuation of a service or services, elimination of a program or programs, or inadequate funding or as a result of being bumped.

Upon receipt of layoff notice, the employee may elect to accept a layoff or exercise their rights in accordance with the provisions of Article 8.04.

Alternatives to lay off. Where the laid-off employee exercises their right to bump another employee in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.04(b), the laid-off employee has no entitlement to payment under this Article.

8.02 Seniority

- (a) When a need to do a layoff is identified, if the ability, qualifications, and experience are relatively equal, the employee with the least seniority will be designated for layoff.
- (b) A full-time or part-time employee who has been given layoff notice or who has been bumped by another employee has the right to exercise seniority and is entitled to provisions of this Article.
- (c) Seniority for a Bargaining Unit member shall be the total number of continuous days of service (rounded to the nearest half day) an employee has been employed in any position at the University. Notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement, approved leaves of absence with or without pay shall not interrupt continuous service for the purpose of calculating seniority.
- (d) An employee's length of service shall be maintained while on the recall list.

8.03 Recall

No new employees shall be hired until those laid off have been given the opportunity of recall in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) Employees on the recall list shall be recalled, in accordance with their seniority, provided they have the necessary ability, qualifications and experience to do the available work.
- (b) An employee laid off will remain on the recall list for a period of 18 months commencing with the date of layoff.
- (c) An employee recalled shall not be required to serve a new probationary period.
- (d) Where an employee refuses a recall to a comparable permanent position of equivalent hours to the position held prior to the layoff, the local union will be notified. Where the same employee refuses a subsequent recall to a comparable permanent position of equivalent hours to the position during the same recall period, the employee's recall rights will be terminated unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

8.04 Alternatives to Layoff

- (a) Two (2) weeks before a notice of layoff is issued, a Layoff Review Committee consisting of the appropriate Director/Dean (or designate), two (2) Union Representatives and the Human Resource Services Director will begin meeting with the affected employee(s) and review the merits of and consider the available alternatives. The Committee will review the current ability, qualifications and experience of an employee affected by layoff and consider
 - (i) whether the employee has the ability and qualifications for appointment to a vacant position
 - (ii) whether bumping is a reasonable alternative
 - (iii) whether retraining for a vacant position is a reasonable alternative
 - (iv) whether job sharing is a reasonable alternative
 - (v) whether a leave of absence would assist a recall opportunity

In the event the Layoff Review Committee reaches a unanimous agreement regarding a recommendation for the laid-off employee, the decision will be implemented. Should the Committee not be able to agree, the Committee members will forward their individual recommendations for any appropriate alternatives, if available, to the President.

- (b) An employee who has been given notice of layoff or who has been bumped, and who has the necessary ability, qualifications, experience and seniority, has the right to displace another employee within the same or the next two (2) lower pay levels and receive the appropriate classification rate of pay.
- (c) The decision to bump another employee must be made within fifteen (15) working days of the notice of layoff.
- (d) As an alternative to layoff the Employer will provide retraining to an employee where a vacancy exists, and the employee can demonstrate an aptitude to meet the new job requirements within a reasonable period of time.
- (e) As an alternative to layoff, the Employer will consider requests for "job-sharing" where the employees directly concerned agree to participate; where the educational and/or support services are not diminished; and where there are no significant additional costs to the Employer.
- (f) As an alternative to layoff and where there is a reasonable expectation that the employee will benefit from a leave of absence and there is an expectation by the Employer that the employee will be recalled to work, then a request for a leave of absence will be considered. Where leave is granted then recall rights will commence upon expiration of the leave.

- (g) As an alternative to recall, bumping and other provisions of Article 8.03, the Employer may offer a sum of money in exchange for an employee's rights under this Article.
- (h) In circumstances where an employee's hours have been decreased, it is agreed that the employee shall have first claim on returning to full time:
 - (i) where there is a reinstatement of the former work or,
 - (ii) where similar duties can be assigned on an operationally feasible basis, where the educational and or support services are not diminished, and where there are no significant additional costs to the Employer. In the case of instruction, the affected instructor must possess the ability, qualifications, and experience to teach the relevant subjects.
- (i) Employee Assistance Program and career counseling will be available for laid-off employees for a period of up to 18 months after the effective date of layoff.

8.05 Grievances regarding layoff shall be initiated at the second level of the Formal Procedure of the grievance process and will be initiated in accordance with Article 13.06 Processing of Grievances.

ARTICLE 9 – TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

9.01 It is agreed that the technological change provisions of the Canada Labour Code, Part 1, apply to this collective agreement.

9.02 Technological Change is

- (a) The introduction by the Employer, into its work, undertaking or business, of equipment or material of a different nature or kind than that previously utilized by the Employer in the operation of the work, undertaking or business; and
- (b) The change in the manner in which the Employer carries on the work, undertaking or business which is directly related to the introduction of that equipment or material.

- (a) Where the Employer proposes to effect a technological change that is likely to affect the term and conditions or security of employment of a significant number of employees, the Employer shall give notice to the Union not less than six (6) months prior to the date on which the technological change is to be implemented.
- (b) When technological change pursuant to 9.03(a) requires additional knowledge and skill on the part of the employees, the employees shall be given the appropriate training practical to qualify employees to retain their employment. A reasonable time will be afforded to the employees in which to qualify. Any instruction or training shall be done at the employee's regular rate and during scheduled working hours.

9.04 The provisions of the Canada Labour Code regarding notice and negotiation will be applied in instances of technological change.

EMPLOYER RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

ARTICLE 10 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

10.01 Subject to the provisions of this Collective Agreement, except where otherwise specified in the agreement, the Employer has the obligation and right to manage the business and educational affairs of the University.

The Employer's obligations include, but are not limited to

- (a) maintaining the efficiency and making, altering, and enforcing rules and regulations to be observed by employees;
- (b) directing, hiring, promoting, establishing probationary periods, demoting, transferring, and laying off employees;
- (c) suspending, disciplining, or dismissing employees for just cause; and
- (d) evaluating jobs, classifying positions, establishing qualification requirements of employees, and specifying the employee's duties.

ARTICLE 11 – STATEMENT OF DUTIES

11.01 Within one (1) month of receiving an employee's written request, the Employer shall provide the employee with a current statement containing the duties and responsibilities including factor - point rating assigned to the position the employee occupies.

ARTICLE 12 – CORRECTIVE MEASURES

12.01 Disciplinary measures are intended to be corrective rather than punitive in nature. They should serve to

- (a) correct an employee's misconduct by deterring similar acts of misconduct in the future; and
- (b) motivate that employee to observe required standards of conduct.

12.02 Discipline and Discharge Application

Before disciplinary action can be taken against an employee

- (a) there must have been an incident or act calling for a reaction;
- (b) there must be proof of the employee's involvement in the incident or commission of the act; and
- (c) the employee must be aware of the grounds for the action taken and be given an opportunity to present their version of the facts. When an employee is required to attend a meeting, the purpose of which is an investigation that may result in formal discipline concerning that employee, or the purpose of which is to render formal discipline concerning the employee, the employee is entitled to have at their request a representative of the Union attend the meeting. Where practicable, the employee shall receive a minimum of one (1) days' notice of such a meeting.

12.03 Investigations of an employee's alleged misconduct shall be initiated without unreasonable delay, normally within three (3) working days and no longer than five (5) days from the day on which the offence is discovered unless the employee is absent, and if that is the case, within three (3) working days of the employee returning to work.

The employee who is the subject of the investigation will be regularly provided with details regarding the investigation process, whether the investigation will be conducted internally or by an external provider and provided with, to the extent possible, an approximate time required to conclude the investigation. A copy of this written notification(s) will be provided to the Union local president.

Employees will continue to receive their salary throughout the investigative process and may remain in the workplace or, based on the specific situation surrounding the investigation, on Leave with Pay. The decision to place an employee on Leave with Pay will be made by Human Resources in consultation with the Director, Dean, Associate Vice President, or Vice President of the area. The Union local president or designated representative will be advised of the decision prior to the employee being advised.

- 12.04 All employees must be provided with written notice of discipline and discharge which must state
- (a) the reasons for the discipline or discharge;
 - (b) the effective date of the discipline or discharge; and
 - (c) what arrangements will be made regarding the financial entitlements as a result of the discipline or discharge.
- 12.05 Discipline and discharge shall only be for just cause.
- 12.06 An employee's personnel file is the official record of performance appraisals, letters of reprimand, or other written communication between the Employer and the employee. No documentation will be entered into this file unless the employee is advised of it and has the opportunity to respond. Any response shall be part of the personnel file. An employee shall be allowed to peruse their own personnel file. The employee shall be allowed to copy any contents of the file.
- 12.07 A document or written statement specifically related to disciplinary action or performance which may have been placed on the personnel file of an employee, shall at the request of the employee, be destroyed after twenty-four (24) months has elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken and provided that no further disciplinary action has been recorded during this period.
- 12.08 The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing relating to a disciplinary action any document, including any performance evaluation review, from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing, or within a reasonable period thereafter.
- 12.09 Access to an employee's personnel file will be authorized through:
- a) Written authorization from the employee.
 - b) The employee signing a grievance form (which authorizes the Union to full access to the file unless the employee has indicated limited access).
 - c) The normal course of duties for Human Resources Services staff or the employee's supervisor.

The parties agree that appropriate confidentiality will be maintained in all situations.

ARTICLE 13- PROCESSING OF GRIEVANCES

- 13.01 This Article provides a formal method for complaint procedures. Before any formal measures are taken, in recognition of the authority of Elders and/ or other respected members of the Indigenous community, grievors may request these community members to act in a supportive, confidential capacity throughout the grievance process. The parties may also agree that such a community member will act as a mediator or decision maker. This shall not be interpreted to be an obligation on any individual to seek the assistance of a member of the Indigenous community.

- 13.02 If they so desire, an employee may be assisted and/or represented by the Alliance at the complaint level and/or when presenting a Grievance at any level.
- 13.03 An employee who wishes to present a Grievance at any prescribed level in the grievance procedure, shall transmit this Grievance to their immediate supervisor or YUEU Local or YUEU officer in charge who shall forthwith
- (a) forward the Grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with Grievances at the appropriate level; and
 - (b) provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the Grievance was received by the Employer.

Before an employee submits their complaint as a Grievance, the employee is encouraged to discuss the complaint with the appropriate immediate supervisor, Dean or Director in an attempt to resolve it.

- 13.04 A Grievance of an employee shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact it is not in accordance with the form supplied by the Employer.
- 13.05 An employee who feels that they have been treated unjustly or consider themselves aggrieved by any action or lack of action by the Employer is entitled to present a Grievance in the manner prescribed in Article 13.03, except where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any other Act to deal with their specific complaint, such procedure must be followed. A “policy grievance” which, due to its nature, is not properly the subject of an employee grievance, may be initiated by the Alliance.
- 13.06 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a Grievance shall be processed by recourse to the following steps:
- First Level — Appropriate Staff with the Director of the Division or Appropriate Dean;
 - Second Level — the Director of Human Resource Services;
 - Final Level — President

ARTICLE 15 – COMPETITION APPEAL AND STAFFING PROCESS

15.01 Competition Process

Notice of all vacancies exceeding four (4) months in duration, that are not filled through the recall provisions of Article 8, shall be posted on designated University bulletin boards in each University centre and forwarded to any employee laid off within the previous eighteen (18) months, no later than the first date of an internal or external posting, whichever occurs first. A copy of such positions will be forwarded to the Union.

Posting of vacancies shall appear at least ten (10) University working days before the competition is closed. All postings shall include salary range, summary of the position description, required qualifications, hours of work and work location.

The vacancy that is not filled through the recall provisions of Article 8, will be filled by open or restricted competition, appointment without competition or short-term assignment as determined by the Director of Human Resource Services, in consultation with the appropriate Dean or Director.

15.02 The Employer may establish an eligibility list from a competition (internal or external) and use the list to make further appointments for positions. The establishment and duration (not to exceed six (6) months) of an eligibility list will be identified on the job posting. The selection committee will rank all candidates and recommend those candidates to be placed on the eligibility list (i.e., not all candidates will be placed on the list, only those ranked successful and recommended).

- (a) Appointments from an eligibility list into an identical position (same duties, same status (Permanent or Term), level, location, and department) cannot be appealed.
- (b) Any proposed appointments from an eligibility list into a substantially similar position (majority of core functions and qualifications are similar, same, or lower classification level) can be appealed.

- (a) When the University determines to take staffing action to fill a vacant or new position, a selection committee will be formed, pursuant to Article 66. The selection committee, through a consensus process, will select candidates for interview, set and hold interviews, rate and rank candidates and review reference information. The most meritorious candidates will be interviewed and ranked against requirements for the position and merits of other candidates. From this group, the Committee will recommend for appointment the most meritorious candidate based on a cumulative assessment which takes into account all of the factors listed in 15.04 and 15.05. For Term employees, length of service will include the total of all periods of service earned since 1999.

(b) Chair Selection Process

Notwithstanding 15.03 (a) above, for academic appointments, each faculty will establish its own selection process, subject to Senate approval.

15.04 Merit Principle

All appointments to positions at Yukon University, other than recall from layoff, shall be based on merit. The process for assessing merit shall include an objective statement of qualifications for each position, a fair test of the factors, open access to information about the position and process, and timely decisions made by a representative selection committee whose members are free from conflict with regard to the process and all of the candidates.

Merit includes the knowledge, abilities, and personal suitability of a person to perform the position and may be assessed from the resumes/curriculum vitae, interviews, reference checks, reasonable and relevant tests and/or prior documented work history with Yukon University.

15.05 Length of Satisfactory service with the Employer will be considered in the determination of the successful candidate.

The parties agree that length of satisfactory service with the Employer will be the Determining Factor for selection when the difference between the candidates with the highest merit points (e.g., based on scores received on interview questions and tests) is five percent (5%) or less using the total potential score as the base for this calculation.

For Term employees, length of service will include all periods of service since 1999 added together.

15.06 Competition Appeal Process

Any Bargaining Unit candidate who is unsuccessful on competition and who believes their qualifications were not properly assessed may appeal provided the appeal is brought forward by the Union.

The appeal must be presented to the Director, Human Resource Services within five (5) working days from the date that the candidates were advised that the decision has been made.

The appeal will proceed immediately to expedited arbitration. The Arbitrator will be selected in rotation from the list of Yukon-based arbitrators acceptable to both the Union and the Employer. No appointment will be made from the competition that gave rise to the appeal until such time as the arbitrator's decision is rendered and complied with. If a Yukon-based arbitrator is not available or agreed to within five (5) days of the appeal being received, the position may be filled as a term appointment until an arbitrator's decision can be rendered.

The arbitration will occur within five (5) days of the appeal being filed and the arbitrator will render a decision within five (5) days of the hearing date. The decision will be final and binding. A copy of the decision will be forwarded to the appellant, the Union, and the Employer.

The arbitrator shall have jurisdiction to decide whether the Employer has properly assessed the appellant's qualifications and whether the Employer has properly conducted the competition to assess fairly the relative merits of the appellant vis-à-vis those of the successful candidate. If they determine that it was not, then the arbitrator may direct that any portion of, or the entire competition be redone.

15.07 Appointment Without Competition

Where it is determined under Article 15.01 that a position should be filled by appointment without competition, a notice of appointment will be posted on University bulletin boards for at least ten (10) working days. If an employee feels their promotional opportunities have been prejudicially affected, they may, with the consent of the Union, file an appeal with the Director, Human Resource Services. If an appeal is filed, the appointment without competition will be cancelled and an internal competition will be held.

15.08 Short Term Assignments

It is in the University's interest to have short-term vacancies staffed in an expeditious and effective manner. As vacancies arise, the Human Resource Services Department will notify all employees via a call for expression of interest so employees may apply for these positions. The calls shall have a closing date.

When staffing short-term assignments or vacancies for positions under four (4) months, and where operationally feasible, the Employer agrees to give preference to University employees who are qualified or can be trained for such opportunities.

The supervisor of a selected employee will determine whether it is operationally feasible to approve the temporary absence of the selected employee. The employee's approval will not be unreasonably denied. The employment status of an employee who accepts a short-term assignment will not change during the period of the assignment. When an employee accepts a short-term assignment, the employee shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of Article 29.08.

- 59.02 The parties are committed to the identification and elimination of systemic discrimination in the workforce. Systemic discrimination includes structural barriers, policies or practices, or widespread stereotypes and assumptions that bar certain groups of people from full participation in activities covered by the Yukon Human Rights Act.

ARTICLE 60 – HARASSMENT

- 60.01 The Alliance, the employees and the Employer recognize that every employee can expect to be treated fairly in the workplace in an environment free of discrimination, and personal or sexual harassment. Any behaviour which denies individuals their dignity and respect and is offensive, embarrassing, humiliating will not be tolerated. Harassment of another employee or of a University client carrying out duties or providing goods, services, facilities, or accommodation constitutes an infraction which may result in disciplinary action up to and including discharge and termination of employment for cause. The use of authority or position to intimidate, coerce or harass is strictly forbidden.

Personal harassment is any behaviour by any person that is directed at and is offensive to an employee or endangers an employee's job, undermines the performance of that job, or threatens the economic livelihood of the employee. It is behavior either in comment or conduct, that is unsolicited, and is known or ought reasonably to be known as unwelcome, which demeans or humiliates another person, and which denies individuals their dignity and respect. Personal harassment includes, but is not limited to, abusive or belittling remarks or jokes, goading, sarcasm, speaking loudly in a threatening angry, intimidating and/or aggressive tone, swearing, and other actions that are disruptive to work production and the physical or psychological well-being of others.

Sexual harassment is comprised of offensive sexual comments, gestures, or physical contact that a person knew or reasonably ought to have known would be deemed objectionable or offensive, either on a one-time basis or in a continuous series of incidents, however minor. Generally, sexual harassment is behaviour of a sexual nature that is deliberate and unsolicited that a person knew or reasonably ought to have known would be deemed objectionable or offensive. Sexual harassment is coercive and one-sided and both males and females can be victims of it.

Abuse of authority occurs when an individual uses their authority or position with its implicit power to undermine, sabotage or otherwise interfere with or influence the career of another employee or in the provisions of goods and services to the public. This definition includes blatant acts of misuse of authority such as intimidation, threats, blackmail, and coercion. However, the abuse of authority does not include the legitimate exercise of individual supervisory powers and authority.

In investigating harassment allegations, the test of whether harassment has occurred will be that a “reasonable person” would conclude harassment had occurred.

- (a) An employee who believes that they have been harassed may file a Grievance within ninety (90) working days of the alleged harassment.
- (b) Any level in the grievance procedure shall be waived if the person hearing the Grievance is the subject of the complaint.

- (d) Article 13.18 shall apply to any person including employees of the Bargaining Unit, regardless of whether or not they are acting in a managerial or confidential capacity.
- (e) The Employer and the Union agree to exchange relevant information resulting from a Grievance filed under this Article. In such instances, confidentiality must be maintained.

It promotes the open exchange of ideas, which is an essential function of the University.

- 62.04 The commitments, rights and responsibilities of faculty members include three major inter-related roles:

 - (c) to ground their teaching, research and scholarship in the best available evidence.
- 62.05 The parties agree to respect the right of all faculty members to exercise their academic freedom. This means the faculty members have the freedom to teach, to design and develop curriculum and pedagogy; to engage in scholarly activity including but not limited to research and creative work; and to publish or otherwise present the products of that scholarly activity.
- 62.06 Academic freedom carries with it high standards of academic responsibility. These include adherence to the professional standards of the faculty member's discipline, and acknowledgement of the need to base teaching, research, and scholarship on rigorous and extensive research, scholarship, and peer review.
- 62.07 Academic freedom must be exercised in a reasonable and responsible manner. It does not require neutrality; rather it carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a manner consistent with the Yukon University Code of Ethics and the scholarly obligation to base research, teaching, publication, and other forms of scholarly expression on an honest search for knowledge and rigorous enquiry.
- 62.08 Academic freedom does not confer legal immunity; nor does it diminish the obligation of members to meet their responsibilities to the University. In the exercise of academic freedom, members shall respect the academic freedom of others, and shall ensure that the human rights of students are respected and that students are encouraged to pursue their education according to the principles of academic freedom.

62.09 Faculty members shall, in their published professional or scholarly work, undertaken as an employee of Yukon University, indicate their affiliation with Yukon University and properly attribute significant contributions of others.

In the event that the employee is deceased, and unless otherwise transferred or assigned by the employee, the rights shall revert to the estate of the employee and will remain enforceable in accordance with Canadian copyright laws.

62.11 Employer Rights to Materials Copyrighted by Employee(s)

Where the employee(s) holds the copyright pursuant to 62.10 (a), the University shall have a right to use the employee(s) copyrighted materials in perpetuity, free of charge, for

- (iv) An employee shall not be required to serve more than one (1) probationary period if they are subsequently appointed by the University to the same position, or a position with substantially similar job functions and required

The University shall not curtail the trial period unreasonably before it has run its normal course. In the event that the employee is not able or does not want to complete the trial period or cannot satisfactorily perform the job, the employee shall be returned to their former position, if available or a position comparable to their former position and salary without loss of seniority. This will include the situation where a Bargaining Unit Member is promoted to an excluded position.

Upon request, the employee shall receive a copy of their performance evaluation review.
- (e) The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing related to a disciplinary action any document including any performance evaluation review, from the file of the employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing, or a reasonable period thereafter.

67.03 Evaluation of Management

The parties agree to the principle of evaluation of management. Recognizing that evaluation is a responsibility of the Employer, the Employer will ensure that the annual evaluation of all persons in management positions, both those excluded from and those included in the Bargaining Unit, will include input from peers, supervised individuals, and other relevant stakeholders.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING H

Article 29.06 shall apply to employees whose position is reclassified.
7. The original intent of the parties was to attempt to complete the implementation of the new classification system by July 1, 2021. Delays in this process will mean that once the study is completed and recommendations have been made, the parties will take retroactivity into consideration in the event there are salary improvements.
8. All time limits referenced herein may be extended by mutual agreement.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING J

(j) RESEARCHERS

Whereas the parties recognize the critical role that researchers play in the success of Yukon University research initiatives and the importance of having work for researchers as a pathway for increasing enrolment and promoting Yukon University research initiatives, therefore the parties agree that:

Due to the nature of employment for researchers, there are no formal advertising or search procedures required. Recruitment approaches are guided by the nature of the research positions and the funding model that supports them.

1. Research positions working beyond 560 hours will be considered Bargaining Unit positions. Research positions include but are not limited to:
 - (i) Post-doctoral fellows;
 - (ii) Research associates,
 - (iii) Research managers.
2. Researchers shall receive all rights, privileges, and benefits as stated in the Collective Agreement except those provided in Articles 6, 7, 8, 15, 28 and Yukon University pay grids. Positions and salary are subject to available budget. The minimum salary will be that detailed for the NSERC Postdoctoral Fellowship Program - $45,000 per year as of [date of ratification]: http://www.nserc-crsng.gc.ca/Students-Etudiants/PD-NP/PDF-BP_eng.asp. Increases may be approved by the funding agency and the senior executive responsible for research. In the event of layoff, language under Article 34.01 for Term employees shall apply.
3. By the nature of the work performed by researchers, it is possible that there will not be a strictly defined work schedule that will apply at all times. For jobs with special requirements, where scheduling flexibility is a fundamental aspect of the work, it is essential that the researcher and supervisor meet at the outset of the appointment to discuss and agree on issues and expectations around the scheduling of work, including how overtime requirements will be handled. However, the expectation is that full-time work as a Researcher is 37.5 hours per week.
4. While the work of researchers is academic in nature, they are not instructors. From time to time, they may be asked to participate in instruction. Any instruction will be a minor part of the individual's activity and should not be assigned on a continuing basis. As per article 38.02, researchers will earn leave as a non-instructional employee.

APPENDIX A

MEMORANDUM REGARDING JOINT CLASSIFICATION FINAL REPORT

DATE: 9 July 1992

TO: President Seeth Seethram; All College Staff

FROM: Layne Marshal, Chair, Joint Classification Committee

RE: Final report

In accordance with the terms of reference provided to the Joint Classification Committee, we are happy to announce that we have completed the work assigned to the committee and will be forwarding our recommendations for a classification system as directed.

Specifically:

- The committee evaluated and agreed on a system of benchmark positions
- The benchmark positions were used to evaluate all other positions covered by the system
- The committee agreed upon and accepted the evaluation as presented by the Human Resource Services Department
- The committee reviewed computation points and point boundaries and agreed upon the levels and boundaries described below:

Level	Points Boundaries
1	55 - 70
2	71 - 90
3	91 - 110
4	111 - 130
5	131 - 160
6	161 - 190
7	191 - 230
8	231 - 270
9	271 - 330
10	331 - 390
11	391 - 470
12	471 - +

The committee was in full agreement with the final recommendations and the work performed to date. As such, the committee will not be referring any disputes for resolution and considers its mandate completed.

The final comment or recommendation that the committee wishes to make to the College is that the end was slow in coming. This was in part due to transitions on the committee. However, the committee feels strongly that a large part of the problem resulted from incomplete and inconsistent work on position descriptions. We therefore recommend in the strongest terms that concentrated effort be paid to producing position descriptions that are clear, complete and correct.

Original signed 09 July 1992 by: Layne Marshal, Will MacDonald, Nelson Ireland, Dilys Kluthe and Diney Williams.
